DEMOCRATS THINK COOLIDGE WILL RUN

Tax Cut Of Over $225,000,000 Seen By Longworth

CORPORATION LEVY SLASH IS ADVOCATED

Speaker Thinks Reduction,
When Finally Made, Will Be Closer $400,000,000

FAVORS BIGGER SLICE

Estate Assessment Should Be Retained in Principle, House Leader Believes

(By United Press)
WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—Congress will cut taxes beyond the $225,000,000 favored by the administration, in the opinion of Speaker of the House Longworth.

Longworth said today he expected a cut between that figure and the $400,000,000 asked by the United States Chamber of Commerce. He indicated a limit of $300,000,000 would suit him.

The speaker favors substantial reduction in the corporation tax and intermediate brackets of the income tax, repeal of all remaining "nuisance taxes" except prize fight levies, and retention of the estate tax in principle. He favors repeal of automobile taxes if the treasury's condition permits it, he said.

The corporation tax, in his opinion, should be reduced from 13 1/2 to 12 per cent, with a greater cut if finances permit.

JURY OF MARRIED MEN REMUS' AIM

By PAUL W. WHITE
United Press Staff Correspondent
CINCINNATI, O., Nov. 17.—George Remus, directing his own defense in selection of jurors, thus far has indicated he wants to be tried by a jury of married men.

Although his co-counsel, Charles H. Elston, denied that Remus wished to exclude women and bachelors from the 12 who will decide whether he is guilty of the murder of his wife, Imogene, the former multi-millionaire bootlegger's decisions have refuted the denial.

Of the four peremptory challenges used by Remus and Elston, three were directed against women. The defense now has 12 left and, as now constituted, the tentative jurors comprise nine men and only two women.

Murder Charged To Mercy Killer

WALTHAM, Mass., Nov. 17.—Joseph F. Buckley, 23, who claimed he killed his sweetheart for mercy's sake, today faced a charge of first degree murder.

The charge was preferred after investigators of the strange death of Miss Grace Mills, 19, had woven a web of circumstantial evidence around her fiancé.

Buckley was reported near death today at a Waltham hospital as a result of his attempt at suicide, which followed the shooting yesterday, of Miss Mills.

Reaffirm Lower Railway Rates For Coast Fruits

(By United Press)
WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—The Interstate Commerce commission today reaffirmed its previous decision prescribing lower rates on deciduous fruits, other than apples, from California to transcontinental points. It denied the protest of the Southern Pacific and other lines against the new rates.

The commission has ordered a rate of $1.75 to eastern points and of $1.62 to northern points reduced to $1.60 and $1.50 respectively.

In reaffirming the decision, the commission said that rates prescribed are "lowest possible lawful rates compatible with maintenance of adequate transportation service and necessary to promote freedom of movement of products of agriculture affected by depression."

The lower rates were ordered following complaints of the California Growers' and Shippers' Protective league that rates on fresh fruits were too high. The Southern Pacific and other roads protested the lower rates ordered by the commission.

MANY HURT WHEN TWISTER DESCENDS ON WASHINGTON

(By United Press)
WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—A tornado which raged through suburban sections of Washington and in Hyattsville, Md., and Alexandria, Va., this afternoon, sent more than 60 persons to hospitals. Scores of others were bruised and cut but none was killed, as far as officials knew late today. High winds smashed part of the U. S. naval air station at Anacostia, doing damage to planes and buildings estimated by officers to have amounted to between $200,000 and $300,000.

WOMAN'S DRUG STORE CHECKED BY L. A. POLICE

Says She Was Thrown Out Of Automobile After Being Doped

(By United Press)
LOS ANGELES, Nov. 17.—Heavily drugged and suffering from minor injuries, Mrs. Faye Rowland is in a hospital here today, while police check her story that she was doped and thrown from an automobile last night by two men of a party with which she was traveling to Sacramento.

According to the woman's story, she had been making a tour of the country with Lee Foster, 32; Frank Martin, 33, and their wives. She said they had traveled from Sacramento to Oklahoma and Texas and last night were going to Sacramento, where she had been staying with Martin's mother.

Mrs. Rowland declared that the last thing she remembered was taking a drink of lemon soda from Martin. She recovered consciousness in a police ambulance. Her wrist watch and $4 were missing, she said.

The woman was found on the street.

CAPTAIN GILES TO HOP OFF TOMORROW

MILLS FIELD, SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 17.—Capt. Frederick Giles announced shortly after 10 a. m. today that the start of his flight to Australia was definitely off until tomorrow.

Although reports from ships at sea indicated favorable weather between San Francisco and Honolulu, a dense fog made visibility exceedingly poor at the flying field and the runway was still muddy from rains of the last few days.

Giles said he would take off at 9 a. m. tomorrow for Honolulu, the first stop on the long flight, if weather conditions permit.

RAIN DISCOMFORTS BLAST SUFFERERS

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 17.—A steady rainfall brought discomfort today to the many persons living in explosion torn houses and slowed down efforts of workmen to recover more bodies from the ruins of the Equitable Gas company blast.

Identification of parts of two dismembered bodies found in the Ohio River, five miles from the scene of the explosion, and a head, found along the railroad tracks near the scene of the blast, brought the list of identified dead to 26.

BLACKMER REFUSES TO RETURN DESPITE CONFISCATION THREAT

Oil Witness Determined To Stay In Europe

Keyman Won't Place Himself in Jurisdiction of United States

PARIS, Nov. 17.—Henry M. Blackmer, missing Fall-Sinclair conspiracy case witness, does not intend to return to the United States to testify, despite the threat that $100,000 worth of his property may be seized, his lawyer told the United Press today.

For the present, the lawyer said, Blackmer would stand firm on his former decision not to put himself within the jurisdiction of American courts, but to remain, as he has been for nearly two years, in Europe.

"I can say nothing more than that we have talked today over the new development in the case," Blackmer's lawyer added. "We have decided to say nothing further."

Blackmer has refused consistently to return to the United States. Appeals and threats by consular and diplomatic agents, and, finally, the cancellation of his passport, failed to move him.

Block Day's Effort To Have Bond Reduced

By HERBERT LITTLE
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—The government today blocked, temporarily at least, an effort by Mason Day to win a reduction from $25,000 to $10,000 of the bond under which he is free on a Fall-Sinclair jury tampering conspiracy charge.

It was the second time in two days the government fought to maintain its hold on reluctant witnesses in the famous Teapot Dome case. Yesterday Justice F. L. Siddons ordered seized $100,000 in property of H. M. Blackmer, a missing "key witness" in the oil trial proper, who refuses to return from Europe to testify.

Jury In Recess

The grand jury investigation of Fall-Sinclair jury tampering was in recess until tomorrow when

MOVE TO PREVENT 1928 PEACH WAR

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 17.—The California state department of agriculture today moved to prevent another "peach war" in 1928.

Canning peach growers from all parts of the state were called into conference at Sacramento November 22, at 10 a. m., by Wells A. Sherman, chief of the division of markets.

The meeting is planned to discuss the many proposals for solving the unsatisfactory condition now existing in the peach industry and to formulate a program for handling the canning peach crop in future years.

Hoover Promises Aid For Vermont

MONTPELIER, Vt., Nov. 17.—Vermont today had the promise of Secretary Hoover for fullest cooperation in connection with its flood relief and rehabilitation program.

Reports of the situation in the devastated area were presented before Hoover, Attorney-General John G. Sargent, Gov. John E. Weeks and other federal and state officials at a conference here.

Locomotive Firm President Passes

NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—Frederick E. Fitzpatrick, president of the American Locomotive company, died at his home in Larchmont, N. Y., last night. It was announced at the company's New York offices today.

WON'T RETURN

Henry M. Blackmer, missing key-witness in the Fall-Sinclair oil conspiracy case, who, his attorney says, will not return to the United States to testify, despite orders for seizure of his property.

FRENCH WOMEN MEN RELEASED BY TRIBESMEN

Group of Six, Captured for Ransom, Now Returning to Safety

(By United Press)
CASA BLANCA, Morocco, Nov. 17.—Four French women and two Frenchmen, released from captivity by mountain tribesmen, entered the French lines at 11 a. m. today, and were expected to reach the first outpost of troops at noon.

The prisoners held were the two daughters of M. and Mme. Arnaud; Baroness Steinhilber, her daughter, Mme. Prokoff; Yvez Steeg, nephew of the French governor general of Morocco, and Jean Maillet.

The Arnaud girls were taken prisoner by tribesmen who killed the girls' parents.

Steeg and the others were motoring together along the fringe of rebel territory. They were ambushed and taken into the mountains while ransom negotiations were being conducted.

RECORD GAIN MADE BY BANK RESOURCES

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Lowman, prohibition chief, today said only 175 persons—46 dry agents and the rest citizens—have been killed in dry enforcement in the last eight years.

Lowman characterized as "loose talk" the statement of Senator Edwards, Democrat, New Jersey, that prohibition killings ran "into four figures."

"Agents are told to fire only in self-defense," Lowman said.

FITTS REPORTED AS 'DOING NICELY'

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 17.—Lt. Gov. Burton Fitts today was reported "doing nicely" in the California Lutheran hospital here, where he underwent a seventeenth operation, yesterday, on his right leg, injured in the World war.

He will not be permitted to have visitors for at least a week, his doctor said.

BRITON ON 20,000-MILE HOP

ROCHESTER, England, Nov. 17.—Sir Alan Cobham started today on a 20,000-mile flight to survey a new aerial route between London and Capetown, South Africa. Cobham is accompanied by his wife, Lady Cobham, who is listed officially as cook and stenographer. She is embarked on the longest flight ever undertaken by a woman.

Ailing Sultan Of Morocco Is Dead, Report

Long Illness Proves Fatal To Mouley Youssef,
45 Years Old

(By United Press)
PARIS, Nov. 17.—Sultan Mouley Youssef, of Morocco, died at 9:30 a. m. today, a dispatch from Fez stated.

Mouley was 45 years old. He ascended the throne Aug. 18, 1912. For some months he had been ill, occasionally showing apparent progress toward recovery and as frequently seeming on the point of death.

Only a few weeks ago, tiring of the treatment of doctors, he left with a small entourage and, traveling incognito, went to a Moroccan health resort to try out his own ideas of treatment.

Mouley is survived by four sons and 15 brothers.

Mouley Youssef ruled as the hereditary holder of the Sherifian umbrella, which has descended down the long line of sultans. Each sultan, before he dies, is supposed to indicate the members of the Sherifian family, who, according to his sincere belief, would be the best man to replace him. This choice usually has been confirmed by election.

RECORD FLOW OF OIL WELL DOUBTED

TULSA, Okla., Nov. 17.—Skepticism as to the claims made by officials of the Transcontinental-Mid-Kansas oil companies that their gusher in the Yates pool would flow around 66,000 barrels per day was expressed by Tulsa and North Tulsa oil men today.

Experts pointed to the fact that the test was made for only 45 minutes and that after the well had been shut down two days. They declared that great quantities of oil would be stored at the "head" and for a short time would show a phenomenal flow, but if tested for a longer period they believed the well would "slow down" to a much smaller average production.

175 LOSE LIVES IN DRY ENFORCEMENT

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Lowman, prohibition chief, today said only 175 persons—46 dry agents and the rest citizens—have been killed in dry enforcement in the last eight years.

Lowman characterized as "loose talk" the statement of Senator Edwards, Democrat, New Jersey, that prohibition killings ran "into four figures."

"Agents are told to fire only in self-defense," Lowman said.

$35,000 IN ROBBERY LOOT IS UNCOVERED

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 17.—A dingy home in Los Angeles Chinatown today yielded loot valued at $35,000 when the police raided what they described as the cache of a band of daring thieves.

Included in the recovered plunder was an engraved revolver presented to former Mayor Charles Sebastian during his regime, a fraternal watch charm, bearing the name of the former executive, 500 watches, 109 watch chains, 10 rifles, 40 revolvers, 70 overcoats and 150 suits.

Quong Lee, Chinese, who lived in the place, denied he knew the property was stolen. He admitted, however, he purchased most of it from Filipino youths, whom, police believe, obtained the plunder from many burglaries.

ILLNESS FATAL

Sultan Mouley Youssef, of Morocco, ill for several months, died early this morning, according to reports reaching Paris from Fez. The sultan is survived by four sons and 15 brothers.

ALLEGED BANK BANDIT IS SHOT BY DETECTIVES

Dallas Gangster, Seriously Wounded, Is Said to Have Confessed

(By United Press)
LOS ANGELES, Nov. 17.—With two bullet wounds in the abdomen, J. W. Walton, 29, formerly of Dallas, Tex., was fighting for life in a police hospital here today, following his capture, late last night, on charges of bank robbery.

Walton, known in police circles as "Lone Wolf" was shot down as he walked into a police trap in his apartment. According to police, he admitted one bank hold-up and more than $3000 was found hidden in his rooms.

Four detectives took up a vigil in Walton's apartment after suspicions had been directed against the former Dallas gang leader.

When he opened the door, according to police, he was confronted by the officers, but refused to surrender and made a dash for a window. The detectives opened fire and Walton fell.

A major operation was performed and it was reported that Walton has a good chance to recover.

Walton asked that his wife be notified at 4665 Travin street, Dallas.

Mrs. Eloise Clark Popping, 23-year-old wife of Eugene W. Popping, formerly of Kansas City, was taken into custody by police for questioning in connection with Walton's activities.

According to police, the woman has been associating with Walton since her husband departed for Kansas City several weeks ago. Police said they did not believe the woman had anything to do with the bank holdup which Walton is alleged to have staged.

CONTRABAND ARMS, AMMUNITION SEIZED

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 17.—East bay police today discovered a ton of contraband arms and ammunition in a raid on the home of John Mannerston, in Albany.

The arsenal occupied the entire top floor of the home. It included machine guns, automatic rifles, hand grenades and ammunition. Mannerston was not at home.

The tip which led to the raid came from the chief of police of Cleveland, O., who wired that machine guns had been shipped to gangsters in Cleveland from an address which was found to be that of Mannerston's home.

Neal Burns, Film Comedian, To Wed

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 17.—Neal Burns, well-known Christie comedy star, and Joan Marquis, film player, made known their intention to wed under the new California marriage license law here today.

The notice of intention must be filed three days before the marriage ceremony and the couple announced they would be wed next Wednesday, leaving immediately after on a trip to Yosemite.

Seriousness Of Farm Problems Is Pointed Out

BY EDWARD C. DERR
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
CHICAGO, Nov. 17.—The plight of the American farmer is so acute that no single piece of farm relief legislation is equal to the occasion, the American Association of Land Grant Colleges and Universities was advised today by its own special investigating commission.

The committee, composed of prominent annual educators in some of the country's leading universities, urged "broad and permanent" agriculture legislation rather than "emergency" measures, and went on to assert that many of the farmers' problems must of necessity be met from within the industry.

Assert Republican Leaders Have No Doubt, Personally, as to Candidacy

By PAUL R. MALLON
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—Despite the generally accepted view that President Coolidge has eliminated himself as a candidate for re-election, his opponents on Capitol Hill believe he is still the most prominent figure in the race and they are making their 1928 campaign plans accordingly.

The president's statement that he does not choose to run and his subsequent acts have caused many politicians to believe he cannot be nominated, but his opponents are proceeding on the theory that the Coolidge leaders are trying to "fool" them.

Declines To Hazard Opinion
A prominent Republican senator from the west, who has always maintained that Mr. Coolidge put himself out of the battle, returned recently from New York with information for his colleagues which he says "bolts" his personal belief on the subject. He now declines to hazard an opinion as to whether Mr. Coolidge will be nominated.

A Democratic leader, who is conspicuous in party councils being held here by Clem Shaver, chairman of the Democratic national committee, says the Democratic leaders have no doubt that Mr. Coolidge ultimately will be the Republican nominee.

Public Statements Different
"I have played golf with half the Republican leaders in Washington and they don't seem to have any doubt about it either, although they talk differently in their public statements," this man added.

Democrats and independent Republicans will try at the coming session of congress to "smoke out" of the president another statement which would amplify his position.

Prohibition Not Mentioned In 'Pussyfoot' Talk

BLADENSBURG, Md., Nov. 17.—William E. "Pussyfoot" Johnson, globe trotting dry orator, made a speech here last night without mention of prohibition.

Instead he told of finding the Mohammedan "a pretty good religion" when he visited Constantinople recently and he offered a prayer in Turkish which he translated.

UNWORTHINESS DROVE WOMAN TO WANDERINGS

BALTIMORE, Md., Nov. 17.—Mrs. Dascomb Forbush told today how a feeling of "unworthiness" drove her, a foodless wanderer, for 26 days.

The wife of the Canandaigua, N. Y., pastor is in a sanatorium here where noted psychiatrists were trying to unravel the mental kink that made her leave her husband in a Washington, D. C., theater to endure the solitude and hunger of the New Hampshire woods, where she was found last Sunday.

Goes to Summer Home
A visit to the Unknown Soldier's grave at Arlington, Va., October 18 completed her mood of self-abnegation. Feeling "unworthy" she left her husband that night and caught a train for Canaan, N. H., the Forbush summer home.

From then on certain of her faculties were blank. She did not feel cold or hungry, she said. She read no newspapers and did not know her husband and Canandaigua citizens were scouring Washington, parts of Virginia, Maryland and New Hampshire to find her. But her mind worked swiftly to dislodge suspicion of any who met her in her wanderings.

Walks Three Days
She walked three days, sleeping under trees, and her feet were a mass of blisters when finally she came to the rough lean-to where she was found.

A farmer once gave her a ride on his wagon, but she refused to enter his house. Once she visited a store in Claremont and bought a chocolate malted milk—her only food—a cup, a knife, a pair of woolen stockings and a small pick with which to break ice from a frozen spring. The temperature at times was 18 above zero.

Thus she existed, losing 30 pounds in 26 days, until a boy found her in the lean-to Sunday.

PLENTY THRILLS ON HUNTING EXPEDITION

NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—Fredrick B. Patterson, president of the National Cash Register company, of Detroit, O., is here after five months in central and east Africa on a hunting expedition. "I had three big thrills during the expedition," said Patterson. "One was when a 15-foot python and I both climbed the same tree. Finally I captured the serpent by dropping a noose around its neck. I had to shoot an elephant when he charged straight at me. The rhinoceros I killed made a dash between me and my camels."

5-Year-Old Boy Saves His Pal From Drowning

ALBANY, N. Y., Nov. 17.—Five-year-old Albert Leone saved his playmate, Billy Smythe, also 5, from drowning in the Hudson river when he put out a stick and drew Billy to safety. Billy had waded into the river and stumbled into a hole. Although Albert's knowledge of life-saving was limited, he did what he thought was the right thing. "I put out a stick," he explained, "and Billy grabbed it and then he got back to me."

Danger Zoning Is Urged By Woman

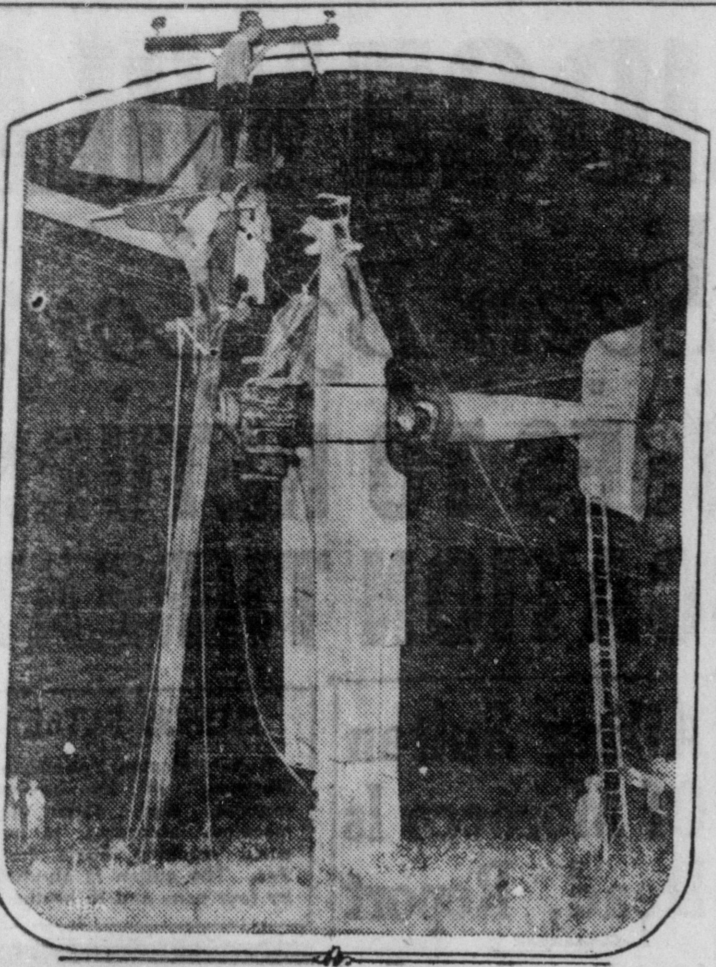

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa., Nov. 17.—"If we had had an Utopia, the disaster at Pittsburgh never could have occurred, for such a thing as a giant gas well in a city would not be tolerated," delegates to the eighth annual convention of the Pennsylvania League of Women Voters were told by Mrs. John O. Miller, state chairman of the league. "We zone for many things, why not for danger?" Mrs. Miller asked. (Adv.)

A THREE DAYS' COUGH IS YOUR DANGER SIGNAL

Persistent coughs and colds lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth. Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for persistent coughs and colds and other forms of throat troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs. Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of persistent coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, bronchitis and other forms of respiratory diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (Adv.)

FLYING IS LOT OF FUN—BUT

"Come take a ride. It's lots of fun," Bryan O'Neill, military college student at Terrell, Tex., invited Miss Lillian Overton. In a few minutes O'Neill and Miss Overton were in the plane pictured above, hanging in mid-air between 66,000 volts of electricity and a long drop to the ground. The fire department and a ladder straightened things out. Miss Overton agreed it was lots of fun, but there were other nice ways of amusement, too.

BUSINESS MEN WOULD CHANGE CONCERN NAME

That its present name no longer indicates the full scope of the business of the Santa Ana Merchants and Manufacturers' association and that, after 20 years under that title, a change is advisable, will be pointed out before Superior Judge E. J. Marks on December 18. The date for hearing the application for a new name had been set today for that time.

The Business Men's association is the new name chosen for the organization. The request for a change points out that the business of the corporation has changed materially since its beginning and that it now acts chiefly as a credit and information bureau as well as an agency for collecting accounts. Action regarding the shift in names was taken on November 3 at a special meeting. The board of directors of the organization, who signed the request, consists of H. P. Rankin, B. V. Curry, Neil Beisel, Arnold Peek, E. T. Mateer, L. D. Coffing, Robert Speed and N. E. Lentz.

WESTMINSTER

WESTMINSTER, Nov. 17.—Miss Beatrice Woodward, of the California Tubercular association, of Sacramento, who is traveling in the interests of child welfare, delivered an interesting talk to pupils above the third grade at the grammar school Tuesday afternoon.

The Misses Myra Evans and Jessie McCoy and Mrs. Mary H. Thomson attended the seventh annual conference of Friends of the Mexicans association at Pomona college recently.

Mrs. Alma Davis and daughter, Helen, of Burbank, and Mrs. Mattie F. Wilson and children were dinner guests at the home of George Abbot, Sunday. Later in the afternoon they visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Parr in Smelter.

Audie Le Flora, Hester Read, Juanita and Hazel Montgomery attended a show at Huntington Beach Sunday evening.

Mrs. J. A. Knapp and children spent Friday at the home of Mrs. Lulu Emery in Long Beach.

Jake Price and A. J. Knapp are working in Redlands for C. C. Murdy.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank King have returned to their home after several days absence at their ranch.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Alguire and Mrs. Etta Johnson, of Los Angeles, were Sunday dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Troop entertained over the week-end Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Dillon, of Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Walker spent Sunday with Denver friends in Long Beach, Mr. and Mrs. Childers.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Snow and family were Sunday afternoon visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Shaver in Long Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Crane and family spent Sunday afternoon at Trabuco canyon.

The funeral of Walter Thomas, 24, who passed away Sunday, was held at Compton Tuesday afternoon. Mr. Thomas had been in ill health for the past 11 months. He moved here from Long Beach. His uncle, W. H. Morgan, of Redondo, and his brother, W. H. Thomas, of Taft, were at the Thomas home when he passed away. Mrs. Thomas and their four-year-old daughter, who survive him, will leave for Taft, where they will make their home with her parents.

Misses Dorothy and Nadine Darling, of Los Angeles, were recent callers at the H. O. Cham-berlin home. Mr. and Mrs. Chamberlin were Sunday dinner guests with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Reider in Pasadena.

The Public Forum

Communications under this heading must be signed by the name of the writer. These communications express the opinions of the writers of them. The opinions may or may not be the opinions of The Register.

Editor Register—A stranger within our gates—A Mr. Judd Cox—thinks that our "Keep Out" and "No Trespassing" signs are not as friendly a greeting as should be extended one who has traveled miles to see and enjoy California. For fear he will go back home and broadcast the news that we are a stingy bunch of people it looks like it would be worth while to explain just why those signs are so prevalent along our highways. In the first place I would like to say to Mr. Cox that in most cases where those signs are in view, if he would drive into the yard and meet the owner and his family, he would be treated to the pleasure of picking a few oranges, walnuts or flowers. Most important of all he would likely find out that the owner was a Californian of only a few years standing—likely from Mr. Cox's own state or county only a few years ago. Mr. Cox does not know that it is no unusual occurrence for a truck to drive into the groves and haul off several hundred dollars worth of fruit and nuts in a single night. This is the class of folks that those signs are posted for as a rule. Often tourists in high priced cars take the privilege of driving on out of sight of the farmer's home and all hands get out and fill all their pockets and even their hats with high priced fruit. If Mr. Cox will keep his eyes peeled any Sunday afternoon he will be sure to see a case of this kind. It is true that such notices do not keep all trespassers out, but they do help to a certain extent and here is hoping that he will linger long enough with us to qualify his opinion of Californians as a whole.

Gave Up Wife And Wealth For Other Woman And Shack

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Nov. 17.—Dr. Ralph A. Morris, characterized by his wife as "a former prominent baby specialist in Detroit," is in jail here with Mrs. Adele Tudor, awaiting trial in criminal court on charges preferred by Mrs. Morris.

"He evidently preferred the two-room shack in which I found them to the 14-room house he owns in Detroit," Mrs. Morris testified in magistrate's court. Morris was said to have abandoned his profession and taken up truck driving for a living here.

MOTHER WANTS CHILDREN WHEN FATHER PASSES

NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—The three Kirkpatrick children, left for seven years in the care of a father dying of consumption, now find a dozen homes open to them.

Their plight was discovered when they were found frantically trying to fan air into the lungs of their father as he gasped his last in their rooms in Brooklyn. Today the mother, Mrs. Magnolia Kirkpatrick, of Northumberland, Pa., who left them in 1920, was here wanting to take care of them. She was a stranger to them.

Hugh Oliver, of Portland, Ore., an old friend of the father, has telegraphed, offering them a home. Their paternal grandfather wants them to live with him in Alabama. Another offer has come from an aunt in the state of Washington. Strangers who read of the case in the newspapers have begged for permission to adopt them.

The father, James Kirkpatrick, was formerly a pharmacist's mate in the navy. After he was left with the care of the children, Victoria, now 14; Robert, 11, and Donald, 9, he obtained work in the navy yard here. Despite his affliction, he kept the little family together.

In the last year when he finally took to his bed for good, he would ask no help. Financed by sick leave pay, he drafted for the children a typewritten rule of life which they followed religiously. Victoria was the "mother" and the others were to obey her.

They rose at a certain hour, washed, went to school, had lunch, came home, studied, went to bed, all on a precise military schedule. Neighbors frequently remarked what attractive, pleasant and well-kept children they were.

Then the father died and the children's society since has taken care of them. William L. Vetter, of the Brooklyn Children's society, said the surrogate court will decide their fate.

"If he desires it, I will investigate to determine if the mother is a fit guardian for the children, or if Mr. Oliver, the grandfather or the aunt would be a better guardian," he said.

FORD, LELAND. ONCE FRIENDS. NOW ENEMIES

(By United Press)

DETROIT, Nov. 17.—A split in the once friendly relations between two of the most picturesque and powerful pioneers in the world of automobile manufacture today with Henry M. Leland, 85-year-old founder of the Cadillac and Lincoln companies arrayed in court against Henry Ford, the richest man in the world.

Leland and his son have filed a $6,000,000 suit against Ford, revealing a bitter enmity had replaced rosy relations, prevailing for instance, five years ago, when Ford strolled from a federal court-room here arm in arm with Mrs. Leland.

Once Intimate Friends
At that time, Leland was arm in arm with Mrs. Ford and everybody stood up and smiled for the photographers.

Ford had just bought the Lincoln Motor Car company, which Leland had developed. The Lincoln company had encountered a financial crisis, and Leland, who had come to the aid of his friend, Leland.

"It would be an industrial crime," Ford said, at the time, "to wreck an organization like that and have the work of Henry Leland lost to further development. My purpose in interesting myself in the Lincoln was to secure perpetuation of the Leland high standards of manufacturing practice."

Today, all was changed. William Henry Gallagher, attorney for Leland and the same attorney who fought Aaron Sapiro's battles against Ford, announced he hoped to get Henry Ford on the witness stand at the trial of Leland's suit and make him admit that he had tricked Leland. "The case is an issue between the word of Henry Ford and that of Henry M. Leland. We have witnesses to prove that Ford made a verbal promise to Leland to take care of the stockholders of the Lincoln company and that promise has not been kept. We expect to compel Mr. Ford to keep it, all other means having failed."

Leland's attorney, filed in the Oakland circuit court at Pontiac, seeks to force Ford to repay stockholders who lost money when Ford bought the $25,000,000 corporation for $8,000,000 at a receiver's sale.

EXPERTS INSPECT VALLEY AIRCRAFT.

FRESNO, Nov. 17.—Two inspectors of the aeronautics branch of the department of commerce are inspecting aircraft in the San Joaquin valley to determine possible violations of air commerce regulations.

The investigators, Frank H. Jerdone and Walter F. Parkin, are inspecting valley airports and studying the qualifications of those applying for pilot licenses.

Dynamite Just So Much Firewood To These Youngsters

WATERVILLE, N. Y., Nov. 17.—Ignorant of the potentialities of dynamite, John Kinsolan took to school enough of the substance to blow up the building.

"I wanted to show the other kids the stuff I found," he explained after the police had moved the explosives to a safer place.

While he was transpiring at the school, John Teznick, 10, took another stick of the dynamite home, hopefully saved it in two and thrust one sample into the kitchen stove where a fire was burning.

John said his experiment was a success. It proved conclusively, he said, that the dynamite was wet and all it did was to "crackle like the dickens and burn a bluish flame."

When Kinsolan informed police that Teznick and he had discovered the explosives in a shack, they hurried to the latter's home and arrived just in time to prevent John from tossing the remaining half of the stick of dynamite into a bonfire.

BANK ITALY MAKES NEW TRANSACTION

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 17.—Purchase of two of the oldest banks in Alameda, the Citizens National and Citizens saving, is announced by the Bank of Italy.

The two banks, said to have combined resources of more than $4,000,000, are to be consolidated with the Bank of Italy's Alameda branch.

ALLEGED STILL OWNERS BEFORE JUSTICE COURT

Examining trial of three defendants charged with ownership and possession of a still, captured on November 12, at Westminster by sheriff's officers, today was being held in Justice Kenneth Morrison's court. They are James Martin, Peter De Marco and H. Haimsohn. The men were arrested by sheriff's officers after the largest liquor "factory" confiscated in Orange county had been taken, according to officers. More than 11,000 gallons of mash were discovered in an old barn near Westminster.

Deputy Sheriff M. E. Jemison, one of the raiding party occupied the witness stand throughout most of the morning session. He told of the raid and charged that one of the three defendants, De Marco, had admitted his connection with the still.

Officers Howard and Steward were to be heard for the state before Justice Morrison decided whether to hold the trio to answer to the superior court.

These MOVIE PEOPLE

There seems to be quite a bit of foreign news trickling into this column of late.

Today's mail brought a letter from Joe Fisher, one of the leading exhibitors of the Far East, which sheds considerable light on the activities of the British.

"Australia has just enacted a law that every theater show 2000 feet of British or Australian film on their programs," says Fisher. "The new ruling comes under the heading of 'The Quota' and is being met with much opposition. Exhibitors are merely stuffing their programs with poor home-made scenes and other local products in order to comply with the new law. And patrons are kicking."

"The trouble is that the majority of British films are made for England and are unsuitable for exhibition to Far Eastern audiences. I recently told Captain Geoffrey Malins, who is now touring the world on behalf of the British film industry, that if he could name four British films suitable for the Far East, I would buy them. Captain Malins couldn't even name one.

The only remedy for the situation is for England to start making pictures that will have a universal appeal. However, instead of doing that, they are depending on laws to put their films across. And theater owners are forced to buy American films as well as the British in order to attract fans."

Even the film actors find that it is better to work in Hollywood than in England. Several months ago Percy Marmont had a row with producers here and went back to England to make pictures. But he returned to the movie capital a few weeks ago, fully decided that he is better off here than there is a little friction now and then.

The same barn that Jesse Lasky used when he made his first film in Hollywood and which he later dressed up as his office is now being used by his employees as a gymnasium. When the Lasky company was moved into its new quarters about a year ago, the barn was also moved to the new lot and "pensioned." But it hadn't remained idle very long when Lasky hit upon the gym idea and now it is one of the most popular spots in the studio.

Hollywood is now having a big laugh—although it doesn't quite know who it is laughing at. For months there has been talk about Erich von Stroheim's "Wedding March," which could not be cut to a releasable footage. And now "Von" is shooting still more film. The reason is that he is trying to build the film up to the point where it will make two pictures, as was predicted in this column months ago would be done.

POLICE JUDGE TAKES LICENSE FROM SPEEDER

One speeder suffered the loss of his drivers' license for a period of 15 days and six others were given fines in Judge J. F. Talbott's police court here yesterday. Most of those who were fined reside in Santa Ana.

Joe Montano, 1815 West Fifth street, was ordered to surrender his operator's license for 15 days and warned not to drive the machine when he pleaded guilty to speeding. He was arrested several days ago.

Those given fines were: Jesse Donovan, Orange, $10; W. P. Huntley, Tustin, $5; J. J. Paul, 1183 South Main street, $10; E. L. Weaver, 417 West Pine street, $10; Everett Jiles, Tustin, $15; William J. Corrinzer, Los Angeles, $10.

Charged with overtime parking, Cood Adams, Santa Ana, was fined $2, and Irving Grey, charged with failure to make a boulevard stop, was given a $3 fine.

HOLLYWOOD

HOLLYWOOD, Calif.—A man and his wife never should work together.

Such is the opinion of Laura La Plante, filmfod's most famous blonde. Laura and Bill Sieler compose one of the happiest couples in the film village.

"Of course Bill and I get along all right even when we do work together, but I think we are both better off when we are on different sets," says Laura.

"I know Bill used to say things to me that another director would never mention and I wouldn't have paid any attention if someone else had said them. A director must at least make his company believe that he knows more than they do. And it's pretty hard for a director to tell his wife he is the brains of the family, even if it's true."

Almost everyone who knows Laura agrees. But there is one exception out here—John McCormick and Colleen Moore. Colleen willingly admits, even boasts, that John has forgotten more about movies than she ever hopes to know. They used to have a divided opinion on some subject, she says, and whenever John let her have her own way she was wrong. So Colleen gladly does as she is told now.

Moviana is about to have another dog star, "Buck." After waiting three years for his chance, Buck recently was given the leading animal role in "The Shepherd of the Hills." Ten trained animals appear in the screen version of Harold Bell Wright's book which Al Rogell is putting on the screen and Buck heads them all. He also keeps them in order between scenes.

Directors and actors never will admit it, but title writers are becoming the life guards of Hollywood. Many a poor picture has had its life saved by one of these fellows. A good recent example was seen in "Stop That Man" at Universal. When the picture was completed, it was pretty bad. Garrett Garham was called in to write a set of sub-titles and he pulled the film out of the grave.

For the last six months a sort of gentlemanly feud has raged at the United Artists studio, home of filmfod's biggest stars. It seems that no one knew whether John W. Considine or Mike Levee was the boss and each attempted to assert himself ahead of the other. It's all over now though, as Joe Schenck has just appointed Considine general manager of the whole works, leaving no doubt about who's who.

Eastern Star

Mrs. William Sylvester was elected worthy matron of Santa Ana chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, Monday night at Masonic temple. Other officers to be elected for the coming year were Elmer Smith, worthy patron; Mrs. Walter Wright, associate matron; Miss Lettie Stowe, secretary; Mrs. John Barge, treasurer; Mrs. Elton Boehm, conductress, and Mrs. Roland Kloess, associate conductress.

These officers will be installed December 2, at which time Mrs. George Prather, present worthy matron, will be installing officer. She will be assisted by Dr. C. T. Cleland, worthy patron. Mrs. Harry Roberts will act as installing marshal and Mrs. Maude Swarthout will be installing chaplain.

On November 28, initiation ceremonies will be held at the Masonic temple. Eight new members will be initiated and eight members will affiliate from other chapters. Following the usual lodge session Mike Pandell will be host to the chapter at an oyster supper held in honor of the 51 new members initiated during the past year.

Knights of Columbus

Reports of the Armistice day parade were made Tuesday night at the Knights of Columbus meeting held in K. C. hall. Following the presentation of the reports several guests congratulated the lodge on its excellent showing at the parade.

One of the important guests at the meeting was State Deputy Bob McKenzie who outlined the year's program for the meeting.

Bound Over On Check Charge

B. R. Childers, alias R. J. Manney, Santa Ana, was held to answer to the superior court on a charge of issuing a fictitious check following his preliminary examination in Justice Morrison's court this morning. Bail was set at $2,000.

Childers is alleged to have given the Rankin Dry Goods company a check for $79.50, on October 10, on which the company was unable to realize the cash. He was arrested several days ago.

MAN INJURED AS DYNAMITE IN EXPLOSION

Russ Bellows will never again trust a charge of dynamite. His faith in the performance of explosives acting according to his plans is destroyed, and with it almost went his eyesight.

At Arch Beach yesterday, Bellows placed a charge of giant powder in a rock and lighted the fuse. It failed to explode, so Bellows placed another charge over the first, lighted the new fuse, and watched the explosion.

But the first charge remained unexploded by the second. It lay dormant until Bellows peered down into the hole, when a delayed spark ignited it, shooting a portion of the cliff into the investigator's face.

Dr. B. B. Mason dressed the wounds and reported that Bellows would not lose his eyes, though his face was badly cut by fragments of flying rock.

The executive board of the Roosevelt P. T. A. met Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Paul Kimball, with Mrs. Kimball and Mrs. Denie as hostesses. Mrs. Barge, vice-president, had charge of the meeting in the absence of the president, Mrs. Richard Cribbar. After the business meeting, delicious refreshments were served.

Lincoln
Lincoln 6th grade pupils were given a party Wednesday afternoon as reward for their efforts in securing the largest number of members for the Parent-Teacher association.

Mrs. C. L. Tibbets, membership chairman, was hostess and had prepared "hot dogs," baby brick ice cream, and pop corn balls which were served in the "summer house" at Lincoln school. The party ended with an enjoyable game of indoor ball, boys vs. girls. Due to the gallantry of the boys the game was declared a tie. Thirty-four pupils enjoyed the affair.

STREET WORK DISCUSSED AT LAGUNA BEACH

LAGUNA BEACH, Nov. 17.—With several improvement districts in process of formation, and the demand for preliminary work starting the city officials in the face, much of the time of the Laguna Beach council last evening was given to a discussion of means by which funds might be raised to perform the essential preliminary engineering work which would permit the districts to go forward with their respective programs.

N. E. West, representing the Yoch estate, appeared before the council with certain matters concerning a subdivision now ready for the market, and said that one of the districts being formed was nearly ready. He asked whether the city would be able to handle its end of the work.

West asked the council to set a hearing regarding the vacating of certain streets, and the widening of others. The council set the first Wednesday in December as the date at which a public hearing of the matter would be given.

City Engineer Stead followed up the matter with some comments regarding the difficulty of doing the preliminary work on Sunset Hills, a subdivision in the eastern part of the city, the streets of which have never been dedicated, and which is not contemplated as an improvement district. He thought that the company owning the property, or individuals with them, should put up a bond insuring that the improvement work contemplated would be carried through to completion, and further that cash be put up covering the expense of the city's part of the work. Members of the council concurred.

The necessity of the city's owning street equipment was also brought up by Stead, who asked if there was any way by which this might be financed. There was no ready answer for this question, and finally it was left to a committee consisting of Frank B. Champion, Joseph R. Jahraus and Mayor Thomas A. Cummings.

W. W. Chandler, health officer, was present and urged the council to adopt a building ordinance as soon as possible, and to embody in it certain provisions which his experience indicated would save a great deal of expense and embarrassment and inconvenience in the long run. He was thanked by the mayor for his thoughtfulness, and assured by City Attorney O. G. Hoegstedt that the building ordinance being generally adopted was to be adopted here.

RESIGNS

Henry Zweifel, who has resigned as U. S. district attorney of the northern district of Texas, declares the present system of prohibition enforcement is all wrong. He asserts "poor unfortunates without funds or influence" are caught by prohibition agents, while the big bootleggers go unmolested, and that "no man's home is safe from invasion by fee-grabbing officers in search of a half-pint of liquor or bottle of beer."

WILL SENTENCE IRVINE RANCH HAND FRIDAY

John Steenberg, 39, Irvine ranch hand, is today awaiting the pronouncement of his sentence tomorrow by Superior Judge Homer G. Ames, following his conviction by a jury yesterday on a charge of driving while intoxicated. The jury recommended a sentence of six months in the county jail.

Under a recent amendment, the judge is required to give a sentence not in excess of the jury's recommendations, but may reduce it. It is believed that Steenberg will ask for probation when he appears tomorrow.

His chances are being weighed with interest owing to the fact that little doubt seemed to be left in the jurors' minds that Steenberg is guilty and that, under his intoxication, he drove his car in such a way as to endanger the lives of three people.

The incident occurred on September 25, when the convicted man drove from a side street onto South Main street near Delhi, crashing into a car driven by E. T. Ladd, 1905 West Washington avenue. Ladd and Mrs. W. C. Gifford, who was in the car, received broken collar bones. Mrs. Ladd was severely cut. They were taken to their home after the accident.

POLY DEBATERS GO TO CITRUS THIS EVENING

A number of Santa Anas are planning to go to Citrus tomorrow night when the Santa Ana high school debating team will meet the Citrus high school team in the first league match of the season. Santa Ana will be represented by Chester Page and Miss Catherine Spicer.

In a practice debate last night at Orange a Santa Ana team, upholding the negative, lost the debate by a decision of 7 to 1. The Santa Ana team was composed of Frank Mansur and Mildred Crowell. Members of the Orange team were Paul Miller and Earl Lyon.

The subject for debate was "Resolved: That the installment plan of buying as developed in the United States during the past ten years is detrimental." This question will be the subject for tomorrow night's debate, also.

Court Notes

Found Guilty

W. L. Garrett, former employee of the H. W. Turney company, yesterday afternoon was found guilty of embezzlement in Justice Kenneth Morrison's court. Garrett was sentenced to spend 30 days in the county jail, this to be suspended, providing he makes good his embezzlements. He was given until Monday to report back to Morrison.

Wine Appeal

The Ganahl-Grim Lumber company won an appealed case yesterday before Superior Judge E. J. Marks, the prize for victory being a judgment for $113.24 against C. E. Evans. It was alleged that the latter had paid only $405.15 of a total bill of $518.39 said to have been run up with the plaintiff during the past four years. Justice Halsey Spence, of Fullerton, rendered the decision on February 24, from which the appeal was taken.

Articles Filed

Articles of incorporation for the Ritchie-Mills Packing company, of Anaheim, were on file today at the office of the county clerk. The firm is authorized to issue capital stock up to $50,000. J. H. Ritchie, Edward Mills, W. N. Wimmer and George R. Schee are named as the directors.

Granted Divorce

Mrs. Mae M. Munro has been awarded a final decree of divorce from Cyrus B. Munro. They were married in 1911 and separated in 1921. Mrs. Munro alleged that her husband had failed to support her.

Asks Divorce

Asking the court to award her the custody of a minor child, Mrs. Luella Powelson had today filed a divorce action against Strand Powelson, alleging that he had neglected to provide for his family. They were married in February, 1925, and separated in May, 1926, when Powelson is said to have deserted his wife.

SAM JERNIGAN ELECTED HEAD OF STATE BODY

Sheriff Sam Jernigan of Santa Ana, was unanimously elected president, and San Bernardino was chosen next year's convention city in a close race with Santa Cruz, at the close of the three day convocation of the California Peace Officers association at Sacramento last night.

Other officers selected were Chief of Police C. W. Potter, Stockton, first vice president; Sheriff W. A. Shay, San Bernardino county, second vice president; Chief of Police J. S. Yancey, Long Beach, third vice president; Sheriff E. H. Gum, Auburn, Placer county, fourth vice president; Captain of Detectives Duncan Matheson, San Francisco, secretary-treasurer, and Chief of Police Ted N. Keening, Sacramento, sergeant at arms.

The officers voted approval of a statewide "printer-telegraph" system in population centers for quick criminal communication, as proposed by Clarence S. Morrill, chief of the state bureau of criminal identification.

HAS LEANING TOWER

BERLIN, Nov. 17.—The steeple of St. Mary's church, in the old part of Berlin, has been found to be more than three feet out of plumb. The base upon which the steeple rests is badly rotted, but iron stays prevent danger of collapse. The parish is too poor to pay for restoration of the famous old thirteenth century structure.

PLANS SERMON ON FRIDAY TO OLDER PEOPLE

A special service in honor of older people is announced for the Spurgeon Memorial Methodist church, tomorrow, at 10 a. m., according to the Rev. Moffett Rhodes, pastor.

Evangelist D. L. Coale will preach a special sermon to those older folk on the theme, "The Joys of Christian Life," and there will be special music directed by Ernest Busley, featuring some of the old-time favorite songs. "Men and women of the city 60 years of age or older, are especially invited to be guests at the service, which is open to everyone else who will attend," the Rev. Mr. Rhodes said, and he added that attractive floral decorations have been arranged in honor of the aged guests, and that every effort would be made to give them a pleasant and helpful hour.

J. C. Gilbank has charge of transportation, and any of the older people who need assistance in getting to the church are requested to notify Gilbank, who will see that automobiles call for them and take them home.

For Friday evening's service, Dr. Coale has announced that he will preach on the subject, "Why I Am a Methodist."

WILL PRESENT DICKENS PLAYS AT POLY HIGH

One of the most entertaining programs ever to be brought to the Santa Ana high school assembly is the one planned for tomorrow morning, 10:40 o'clock, according to an announcement made today by D. K. Hammond, high school principal. The program is to be presented by the Dickens players of Los Angeles.

The program will include the presentation of scenes from "Cricket on the Hearth," the "Rag Shop" scene, and "Pickwick's Courtship."

Various parts will be taken by Symons Henry, Gertrude Henry, Eugene LeClere, Edward M. Kimball, Martietta Bosworth Willats, and Jean Adkins.

Preceding the Dickens numbers, a motion picture, "Working for Dear Life," will be presented.

SCHOOL SIGNS ARE DESTROYED ENGINEER SAYS

Complaint was made to the city police today by City Engineer Clyde Jenken, regarding the number of school zone signs which have been broken recently by motorists, he said, deliberately run into them.

Fifteen signs have been broken in the past two weeks, according to Jenken, and more than twice that many have been struck by machines, he reported.

Jenken is of the opinion, he said, that if motorists run over the signs, they would as easily run over a child, near the schools, and he asked the police to do something about it.

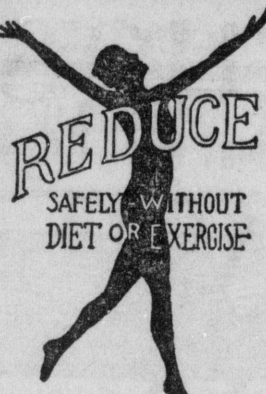

A number of the signs were broken accidentally Jenken said, but he feels that "drug store cowboys" have crashed into the signs on purpose in a number of instances.

Jenken said that he may change the design of the signs so that they would stand higher on the street, and thereby be more visible to the motorist.

SAVED BY SAUSAGE

NEW YORK, (Nov. 17)—James Huff, proprietor of a delicatessen in Brooklyn, was ordered to throw up his hands by two holdup men. Instead of obeying, Huff picked up what looked like a piece of iron pipe and chased them. The would-be robbers were captured by police and it was learned that Huff's weapon was a piece of bologna.

The "Forty and Eight" held a business session in Anaheim last night. Child welfare work was discussed together with other business. Only about 40 members were present according to Mark Todd, correspondent.

Jack Fisher comes to the front and announces that he was the man who designed the Forty and Eight float which won a prize in the Armistice Day parade at Fullerton. More power to you, Jack.

Some argument is heard regarding whether the Forty and Eight society won the sweepstakes float on November 11 and therefore the cup. Yes, 'tis true. According to Hugh Miller, who had much to do with the celebration this year, the box car outfit's entry was the winner of that particular prize and as they have won it two consecutive years prior to this year, it means that the cup is theirs for good.

There will be no meeting of the Santa Ana post of the Legion next Thursday, although next Thursday is a regular meeting night. Turkey day interferes.

The regular meeting of the post's executive committee will be held Monday night at 7:30 o'clock at the home on Birch street, it was announced.

Dick Queen, San Francisco commander of the state disabled vets got a real reception on his recent trip to Santa Ana. The Legion, the auxiliary and the Forty and Eight, through their representatives clearly showed him that Santa Ana and Orange county is on the map in Legion affairs.

The Forty and Eight is planning a "ladies' night" in the near future. Mark Todd didn't want to give any particulars regarding it today, stating that plans were not complete.

These MOVIE PEOPLE

HOLLYWOOD, Cal.—A night in celluloid: Dinner at the Hollywood Athletic club, with Edwin Carewe and Roland Drew... you can always depend upon finding plenty of movie folk dining here... it's a popular hangout... and much quieter than the cafes... Charley Farrell and Carmelita Geraghty was off in a corner... she looks stunning... they have been seen together considerably recently... wonder if that means anything... Al Rogel and his wife, Marian Douglas, entertaining some friends... Ronald Colman eating alone...

Now for the boulevard and its bright lights... Hollywood closely resembled a "hick" town a few years ago... but now it's actually civilized... most of the best legitimate shows are coming out here instead of to the downtown theaters... and the blazing lights of those theaters add considerably to the atmosphere... luxurious cars hurry hither and thither bearing their smartly dressed cargoes of human puppets to various places of amusement... of which the village has but a few...

Dancing at the Montmartre... one is always sure to find someone he knows here... there go Joan Meredith and Whitney Williams... Marie, the beautiful blond cigarette girl... the music is pretty good tonight... sure enough it's a new orchestra... Eddie Brandt changes orchestras as often as Sam Goldwyn does publicity directors... that fell pretty flat... but it would draw a laugh in Hollywood...

Out to the Pom Pom cafe... where Will Morrissey puts on an entertaining show... Will always does that... there's an entirely different atmosphere here than at the Montmartre... the patrons are bent on having a hilarious good time... and making good progress... no one seems to mind how much noise he makes... there's Edna May with a good looking young scrivener... she certainly excited the movie ranks when Johnny Hines first "discovered" her... Clara Bow and a boy friend just came in... now there'll be some fun... no place is dead when Clara is around...

Hollywood at last is recognizing the men who pep up motion pictures with subtitles. A few nights ago the Carmel theater blazed "Ralph Spence Titles" just as brightly as the name of the picture and the star.

His Imperial Highness, the Archduke Leopold of Austria, who is playing the role of chief of detectives in "Night Life," comes to the set daily accompanied by his private secretary. In fact, his secretary is studying the technical end of motion picture production and he has been given the duties of prop man. His highness intends to return to Austria after working in American movies to associate himself in the motion picture industry in that country.

W. C. Fields, star comedian, now teamed with that other star, Chester Conklin, in making "The Slide Show," is confined in the Hollywood hospital as a result of an accident on a concrete road near his home. It is expected he will be back on the job in two or three weeks, although he had narrow escapes. He was riding a bicycle when a heavy truck struck him and dragged him several yards. X-Ray pictures showed a slight fracture of one of the vertebrae.

FARM BUREAU PLANNING TOUR BY AUTOMOBILE OVER FOREST LANDS OF COUNTY SATURDAY

The Santiago canyon road is in good condition and it will be possible to maintain a speed of 30 to 35 miles an hour when the automobile caravan on the farm bureau forestry field day tour is held Saturday, it was announced today by A. M. Stanley, secretary of the bureau and director of the tour.

Stanley yesterday drove over the route of the tour for the purpose of noting road conditions. He said the roads in Black Star and Silverado canyons also were in good condition. Places of interest have been marked where no stops is to be made.

"The Highway burn is rapidly recovering and the visitors Saturday will be denied the opportunity of viewing the burned area in its ghastly state," Stanley said. "Young brush is starting out fine and in a short time the marks of the forest fire in the Santiago canyon will be obliterated. This is satisfactory proof that under certain favorable conditions reforestation of our hills will be a successful undertaking."

Pointing out that the caravan will leave the hall of records here at 9 a. m., Stanley said that those who could not come to the local point would join the party at Orange county park at 9:30 a. m. The trip is designed to give a cross-section view of Orange county's forestry, fire and water conservation problems, and the route will traverse the principal forest section.

At Orange county park the party will view the forest nursery operated co-operatively by the farm bureau, board of supervisors and the forest service. Explanation will be made by W. M. Cummings, chairman of the farm bureau committee of the bureau.

The group is scheduled to arrive at the Oak Flat fire station at 9:45, going over the new fire protection road construction, which is being constructed jointly by the county of Orange and the U. S. forest service at a cost of $28,000. En route the site of the proposed dam in Santiago canyon will be viewed.

An hour later, or at 10:45, new fire breaks at Oak Flat will be inspected, with explanations by Forest Supervisor J. E. Elliott.

A "fire fighter style" lunch will be served at Ranger camp at 12 m. Following lunch short addresses will be made by Woodbridge Metcalf, extension forester, University of California, Paul Bailey, Orange county flood control district engineer; Willard Smith, member of the Orange county board of supervisors in charge of reforestation, and Winfield Scott, of the American reforestation committee.

At 2 o'clock the caravan will leave for Harding reservoir by way of Silverado canyon, viewing natural forest covering en route. Reaching the reservoir, the members of the group will view silt conditions caused by the fire and explanations will be made by J. B. Stephenson. Erosions in Modjeska canyon caused by the fire will be viewed at 3:30, with presentation by W. W. Hoy of figures showing comparative water run-off. The summit of Modjeska grade is scheduled to be reached at 4:15, and after a pause for a full view of the burned area, the caravan will start for home by way of El Toro.

Police News

John Henstra, 846 North Ross street, reported to police yesterday that his automobile was stolen from a place where it was parked near Sixth and Bush streets. A good description of the machine was given officers.

Two men were arrested last night on vagrancy charges when they were found wandering about the city. They gave the names of Otto Smith, 36, and A. Bates, 33. Officers Murray and Perry arrested Smith and Bates was arrested by Officer Swain.

Frank Clark, 17, is being held here by police pending an investigation. He was arrested last night by Officer C. V. Adams, who said that Clark may be a runaway youth from Bakersfield. Clark told officers he lived in San Diego.

Charged with vagrancy, L. Byrne and William King, arrested here Monday night when they were found sleeping in a box car, each were given 30 days suspended jail sentences in Judge J. F. Talbot's court yesterday.

Alleged to have been caught in the act of taking a sweater from an automobile parked near Third and Spurgeon streets last night at 9 o'clock, Bill Hancock, 17, was arrested for petty theft by Officer C. V. Adams, and lodged in the county jail. The sweater is said to be the property of T. D. Meads, employee of the Santa Ana Edison company.

COUNTY RIDING CLUB PLANNING FOR BARBECUE

A barbecue at the E. F. Gaines ranch in Carbon canyon on Saturday, December 3, preceded by a riding hour starting at 10 a. m., is programmed by the Orange County Riding club, it was announced today by F. M. West, of Fullerton, secretary of the club.

Plans for the big day were discussed at a meeting of the executive committee and committee chairman of the club held last night at American Legion hall, Fullerton, and further details of the program will be developed at a meeting of the group to be held at the McFarland cafe, Fullerton, Wednesday evening of next week.

Pointing out that the Gaines ranch in Carbon canyon is a short distance beyond Olinda, West said members of those who may wish to become identified with the club will be welcome. Women also will be present at the barbecue.

At the meeting last night the committee concluded business concerning the successful horse show conducted at Fullerton on the evening of Armistice day as a benefit for the American Legion.

POLY FRENCH CLUB PLANS XMAS PARTY

Members of the French club of the Santa Ana high school are looking forward already to a Christmas party to be held December 14 at the home of the Misses Julia and Elpha Thorndyke, 1523 North Broadway. Plans for the affair were made at yesterday's meeting, held at the high school.

Committees appointed to complete arrangements were refreshments, Robert Northcross, chairman, Florence Brownridge, and Frances Larrabee; and decoration, Marjorie Adams, chairman, Frances Alsop, and Julia Thorndyke.

Yesterday's program was opened with the singing of "The Marseillaise" after which Helen Hull and Marjorie Adams presented an humorous sketch. A story was told by Frances Alsop and Marguerite Lentz and Lillian Neuman presented a dialogue.

Trash Boxes Must Be Put Out Early

"Get the trash boxes out on the curb earlier in the morning." This was the advice given by Clyde Jenken, city engineer today, to complaints received that the city workmen were not collecting trash as regularly as of yore.

Jenken said that the trash collection was made in shorter time now than before in that the collectors had been furnished with faster equipment and therefore were able to make their rounds earlier.

"All trash boxes must be put out by 8 o'clock in the morning, or the collectors may have gone by," Jenken said.

COUNTY SCHOOL TEACHERS HEAR ADDRESS HERE

The fact that Americans insist on having rights without admitting corresponding obligations has impressed Dr. Borden Watkins, head of the economics department at the University of California at Los Angeles, throughout his entire 20 years in this country, he stated last night in an address made to 350 Orange county teachers gathered at the Santa Ana high school.

Dr. Watkins' subject was "Adult Education and Problems of American Democracy."

According to Dr. Watkins' own story, he was once a coal miner in Great Britain, in a town of 15,000 people where there was neither high nor intermediate school. Although many boys of this country make their way through college by washing dishes or performing similar services such an act "simply wasn't done" at Oxford or Cambridge.

Arriving in Chicago, 20 years ago, with only one dollar in his pocket Dr. Watkins has climbed to an enviable position in the university in Los Angeles.

During his speech, Dr. Watkins made a plea to the teachers to aid to the fullest extent in "moralizing education." He stated that education does not make men moral as has been a popular belief. "Instead," Dr. Watkins continued, "we must first moralize education by putting it on a more spiritual basis. This can only be accomplished by the teachers."

Dr. Watkins showed in interesting manner how the great economic forces of the world had conspired to make the United States the greatest nation of this age. He described the process which made the United States turn from a debtor nation, owing six billion dollars to European countries in 1914, to a creditor nation to which European nations of today owe 22 billion dollars. Dr. Watkins cited these figures as the reason that it is necessary for the adults of this country to be educated.

MAN ARRESTED HERE FOR SAN BERNARDINO

Carl W. Klewin, 23, 206 Walnut avenue, Huntington Beach, was arrested for San Bernardino officers at the beach city last night, and lodged in jail, and George H. D. Langskov, 36, was arrested a short time later on a charge of communicating with the prisoner through a window.

Klewin and Langskov were brought to jail here last night, the latter to serve a 60 day jail sentence on the charge. Klewin was turned over to San Bernardino officers this morning. He is to be wanted there on a liquor charge. Officers Kesterson and Choat arrested the two men and brought them to the Santa Ana jail.

SHRINERS WILL PAY HOMAGE TO NATIONAL HEAD

Shriners of Orange county and all Southern California today were looking forward to Wednesday evening of next week in anticipation of big time at Al Malaikah temple auditorium in Los Angeles, where the wearers of the fez will pay homage to Imperial Potentate Clarence M. Dunbar, head of all the Shriners in North America.

According to J. O. Pyle, president of the Orange County Shrine club, a large class of candidates will be led across the perilous hot sands by the initiation patrol.

A special prologue to precede the initiation proper has been worked out in which hundreds of people will participate, and the special scenery and lighting effects are said to be the most expensive and beautiful ever developed for any ceremonial in the history of Shrinedom. Theo. Kosloff has been rehearsing a large special group of dancers who will participate, and elaborate costumes are being rushed to completion in time for the ceremonial. Wherever possible the seating capacity of the auditorium, now 6500, will be enlarged to meet the demands of the Shriners who will attend.

"The visitation of the Imperial Potentate is always an event in the affairs of Shrinedom and climaxes the year's efforts of the officers of Al Malaikah temple to carry out the traditions of the Mystic Shrine," Pyle said.

Imperial Potentate Dunbar will be accompanied by his daughter, Marion, and other officers of Imperial divan. The head of Shrinedom will arrive in Los Angeles Monday, at 8:50 a. m., at the Southern Pacific depot, and will be escorted to the Santa Fe station, where he will leave at 9:15 for San Diego. He will return to Los Angeles Wednesday morning, arriving there at 12:50 p. m.

INHALES GAS FOR FUN

FARMERS AND FRUIT GROWERS OF STATE MEET

BY ESTO BROUGHTON
Staff Correspondent Santa Ana Register

STOCKTON, Nov. 1.—Methods of producing not merely better crops by the farmer, but also more prosperity for the farmer, engaged the attention of the sixtieth convention of the Fruit Growers & Farmers association which opened here yesterday.

Every speech of the convention, from that of Governor C. C. Young to that of State Director of Agriculture G. H. Hecke, Chief of Division of Market Wells A. Sherman and Lloyd S. Tenny, federal chief of agricultural economics, touched upon the need of better marketing conditions.

Acknowledging California's lead in agriculture, practically all the western governors have sent delegates to the conference. The recognition this state has received is well expressed by Governor R. C. Dillon of New Mexico, who told Governor Young: "California has made much marked advance along practically all agricultural lines that we are anxious to get the benefit of her experience."

Not more, but better fruit, was indicated as the key to greater prosperity in the future by Wells A. Sherman, recently appointed director of markets by G. H. Hecke under a co-operative agreement with the federal government.

After complimenting California upon pioneering in the state market director field, Sherman pointed out the possibilities of establishing a remunerative world market based upon the superior quality and advertising the worth of fruit "Raised in California."

"The success of the California standards for canned peaches, pears, cherries and apricots is worth further exploitation," Sherman declared. "We have not tested the commercial value of a state certification of the specific quality of a processed article."

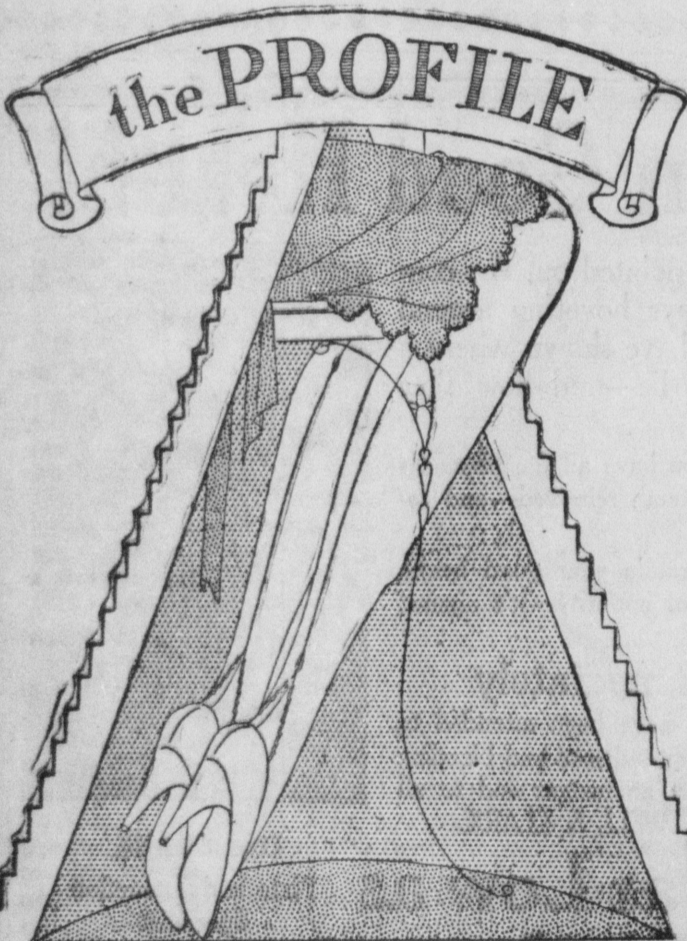

The reputation of a fruit is valuable and may legally be protected," he asserted. "California can go as far as she likes in establishing a 'good reputation' and by law requiring a 'high quality.'"

More will be gained by co-operation with the marketing agencies than by strife with them is the market chief's opinion.

No amount of legislation can cure overproduction, he explained. Outlining a program of relief for the peach growers, the chief recommended that young trees be uprooted, the industry paying the losses the value in order to curb flooding the market in the future.

SANTA ANA EDUCATORS FAVOR COUNTY JUNIOR COLLEGE IF IT MEETS NEEDS OF PEOPLE

Following the announcement that the Associated Chambers of Commerce of Orange county have started an investigation of the desirability of establishing a county junior college, Santa Ana educators today expressed themselves as favoring the project if it is shown that the proposed institution would serve the people better than the existing ones.

All agreed, however, that the subject should be studied with extreme care from every angle before a decision is reached in the matter.

It was pointed out that the number of communities to be served by a county college, the problem of selecting a location, coupled with the probable future developments in the educational world are important phases of the matter which complicate it to some extent.

J. A. Cranston, superintendent of schools in Santa Ana, pointed out the possibility that the state board of education probably would not agree to the establishment of a third junior college in this county. Fullerton is believed unwilling to shut down its college plant or to support a county institution. This would leave the Santa Ana college to be discontinued or merged with the county school if it were built.

McKee Fiske, dean of the local college stated that he would be in favor of anything that would better

INFANT DEATH RATE HERE IS UNUSUALLY LOW

BY CLEM WHITAKER
(Staff Correspondent Santa Ana Register)

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 17.—Southern California's "new generation," now embarking on life's cruise aboard numerous creepers, kid-die-cars, scooter-bikes and row-cycles, has a far better chance of surviving the "dangerous age" than the infant army in the nation at large.

The 1927 crop of native sons and daughters, furthermore, has an advantage over the youngsters born in California a few years back. Dr. Walter M. Dickie, state director of public health, declared in his annual baby audit today.

Sun-kist California babies, like sun-kist fruits, not only have natural color; they're hardy. Climate, parental and postnatal care, and vigilant health workers give them a big edge in the life race, said Dr. Dickie.

Riverside, the report shows, made great strides in cutting down its baby death rate during the last twelve months, reducing the ratio from 92.2 per thousand to 65.8 for the period just announced. The county of Riverside, however, still has a high mortality rate, its ratio being placed at 132.7, exclusive of cities.

Santa Ana, despite a high Orange county rate, has one of the lowest city infant death averages in California. The Santa Ana baby death rate was reduced from 59.8 to 34.3 during the last twelve months. Anaheim still lags, however, with a rate of 82.3 and the county's rate is 83.8.

Long Beach, one of the baby "white spots" in Los Angeles county, has maintained a consistently low infant death ratio. For the past year its rate was 45.7, against 50.1 the preceding twelve months and compared with a county ratio of 87.6. The Los Angeles city average was 58.3 deaths per thousand births.

The state infant mortality rate dropped from 69.5 to 62.9.

Considerable speculation has been aired as to whether the University of California will be forced to do likewise because of its huge enrollment. The University of Southern California is being watched for similar developments.

If these universities lopped off the freshman and sophomore years the resulting burden on the junior colleges would be enormous, educators believe. The large increase of students might result in far-reaching changes in the administration of the junior colleges. This possibility is one that should be kept in mind in laying plans for the future in Orange county, it is thought.

SUPERVISORS ASKED TO AID STATE IN CAMPAIGN AGAINST OVERLOADING OF BIG TRUCKS

"Drive right up and have your car weighed. No, it won't cost a cent and the service won't put you under any obligation either unless your truck is over loaded. Of course, in that case, there might be a fine to pay."

This invitation may be heard before long on the roads of Orange county if the supervisors elect to co-operate with the state bureau of weights and highway protection in a campaign for banishing trucks with illegal burdens from the boulevards. M. Holden, acting for Frank Snook, chief of the Motor Vehicle department, put the proposition before the board yesterday, asking for aid from the county traffic squad in enforcing the law.

Holden declared that investigations in recent months have revealed an alarming number of vehicles carrying more than the law allows. He has been seeking county aid for the state workers in southern and central California. Snook, apparently, is launched on a determined movement to enforce the law.

If Orange county decides to go ahead with the truck weighing proposition, the popular fad of reducing may no longer be confined to the women of this section. It may become more profitable for truck owners to keep their loads down to the requirement than to pay fines for over-loading.

A new type of scales is recommended in weighing trucks. No jacking up process is necessary as it was with the older brand of weighing machine, and the operation is speeded up considerably so that more efficient work can be done. One county, according to Holden, bought the apparatus and paid for it, with fines of course, in 23 days.

The board took the request under advisement and indicated its desire to co-operate in the law enforcement procedure. The county is said to own two sets of the older types of scales, which may be salvaged for the purpose of reducing the expense of the new apparatus if it is bought.

Holden said that five counties are now functioning in the campaign and that he believes many Snook, apparently, is launched on a it has been presented to them.

WILL ARRAIGN YOUTH FRIDAY IN THEFT CASE

T. E. Le Bel, the first of a trio of asserted turkey thieves to appear before the Superior court as a result of kidnapping several hundred fowls in Orange county during the last few weeks, came before Superior Judge James L. Allen at 4:30 p. m. yesterday, when information was filed against him.

His arraignment was set for tomorrow at 9:30 a. m. Le Bel told the court that he had no attorney, saying he had been informed that he didn't need one and that they are a hindrance anyway.

Le Bel is being held in the county jail on a charge of grand larceny following his confession to the thefts. He and Harold Via, the leader of the gang, are said to have admitted the stealing. The other member of the trio is Donald Salter, of Buena Park, who was arrested Tuesday.

The latest thefts are said to have been at the W. E. Pauls ranch, near Olive, where 57 turkeys vanished. The total number now approaches 300.

The three men have waived their preliminary examinations before Justice Kenneth Morrison. Arrangements were being made for having Via before the court this afternoon for arraignment. Salter is slated to appear tomorrow at 9:30.

NEW FORD OUT ON DECEMBER 1, WORD

NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—The Dow Jones and Company, financial news service, said today in a Detroit dispatch that the new Ford automobile would be announced about December 1.

"Unless serious manufacturing obstacles develop or a late change in specifications of some part is ordered by Ford, the daily output of new cars will have reached several hundred by December 1," said the service.

"The assembly line at Fordson has started production on a small scale. Preliminary runs on the line to date have averaged less than 100 cars a day, but the Highland Park plant and certain outside parts and accessories makers are supplying Fordson with parts on the basis of a 100-car daily schedule."

START INQUIRY INTO MRS. WALL'S DEATH

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 17.—An investigation into circumstances surrounding the death of Mrs. Elizabeth Hallenbeck Wall was under way here today after two relatives of the wealthy woman had served notice that they would contest her will.

The will, which is scheduled to be probated Monday, leaves an estate estimated at more than $500,000 to the woman's husband, Wesley Wall, interior decorator. It also provides a trust fund of $10,000 for the maintenance of Mrs. Wall's great dane mastiff.

At the time of Mrs. Wall's death, a coroner's inquiry failed to establish natural causes. Mrs. Wall had been married three times, her second husband being Dr. Cecil Reynolds, noted alienist. She was a descendant of a distinguished New Jersey family.

CAR CRASH VICTIM AGAIN CONSCIOUS

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 17.—After being unconscious 14 days, following an automobile accident, Miss Jeanette Reese, 20, University of California student, from Los Angeles, rallied today and regained consciousness, it was announced at the university hospital here. Her condition was reported greatly improved.

Police News

Charged with speeding, William J. Coringer, Los Angeles, was fined $10 in police court here yesterday.

E. Coradas, charged with being drunk, pleaded guilty in Judge J. F. Talbot's court yesterday and was fined $50, which he paid.

Orrin H. Baker, 621 East Fifth street, Santa Ana, reported the theft of his automobile from Tustin, Tuesday night. Police were given a description of the machine.

Harold Jaynes, city motorcycle officer, underwent an operation at the Santa Ana Valley hospital Tuesday. His condition was reported as satisfactory today.

Robert C. Boone, 21, 624 South Cochran street, Los Angeles, entered the county jail last night as a prisoner for five days. He was sentenced to jail on a charge of speeding 50 miles an hour, from Justice Kenneth Morrison's court yesterday. Officer George Stinson, of the Irvine boulevard, arrested Boone on the Irvine boulevard on October 14. Boone will be released Saturday morning.

Mamie Dozier, 29, and Ted Eastman, 25, were arrested by Officers Jess Elliott, Carter and Bob Elliott, last night at 108 Oak street and were booked at the county jail on charges of contributing to the delinquency of minor children. Yesterday in an arraignment before Justice Kenneth Morrison, they were released on their own recognizance and examining trial set for December 1, at 9 a. m.

F. M. Keyser, 52, 1519 East Tenth street, Long Beach, was lodged in the county jail last night by Huntington Beach officers on a charge of reckless driving.

Court Notes

Suit For Divorce

Mrs. Uua E. Tabler yesterday filed suit for divorce against Clarence W. Tabler and asked that the custody of their one child remain temporarily with the superior court, where it now rests pending the outcome of an action alleged to have been filed by Tabler in which he sought to gain control of the little girl. She alleged that he had failed to provide for his family.

Files Action

Henry A. Schneider yesterday filed an action in the superior court against Thomas J. Richardson, to force him to pay a $2500 stock assessment to the receivers of the Granite City Investing company. He alleges that the assessment has not been paid and names the receivers as Frederick M. Dickson and J. J. Quigley.

Couple Sued

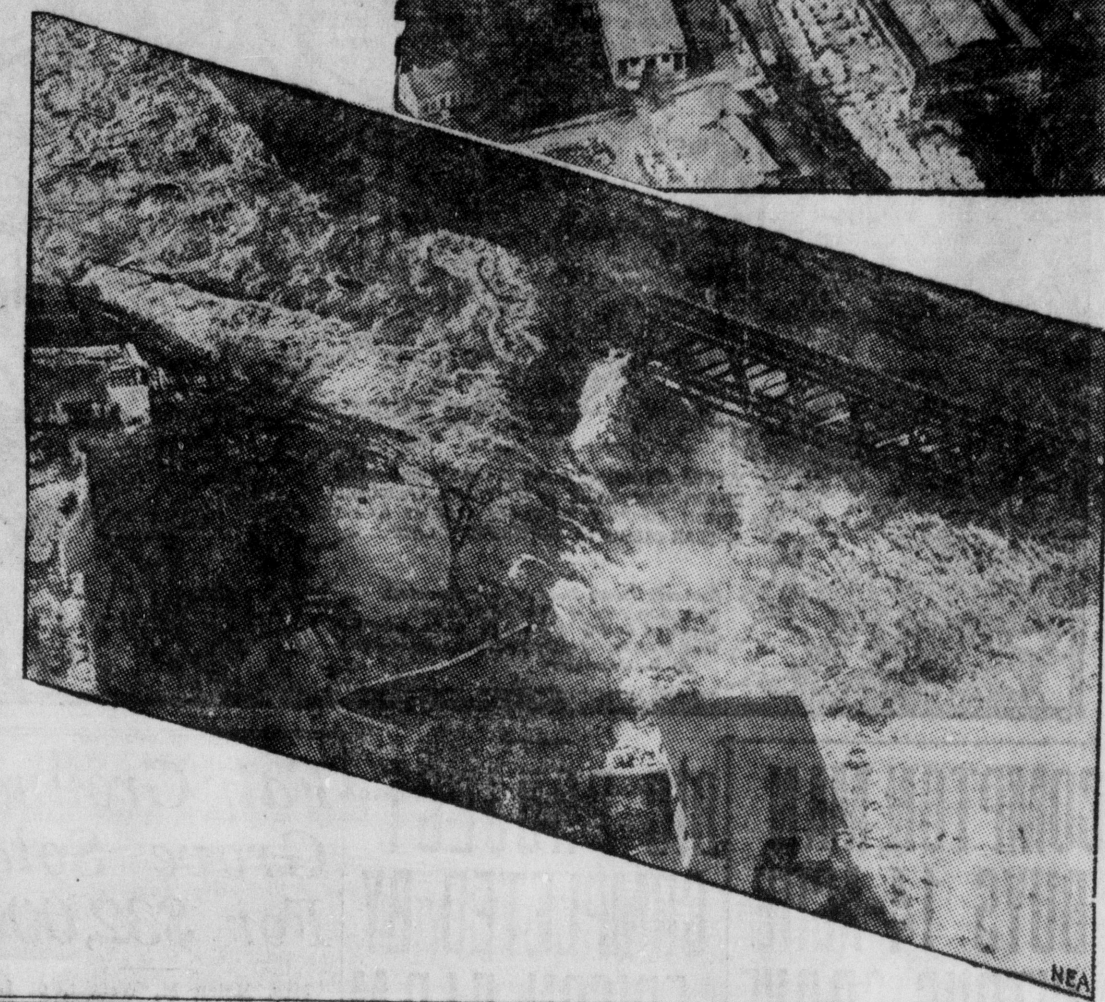

R. L. Walker and Ethel Walker were named yesterday as defendants in a suit for the recovery of $146.25 alleged to be due to J. D. Sanborn, the plaintiff, for plumbing materials and labor.

WASHINGTON LETTER

By RODNEY DUTCHER
NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—One often hears that we, the people of the United States, are a dumb lot, incompetent to govern ourselves and hence allowing ourselves to be governed by an assortment of grafters, four-flushers and plutocrats.

The fact seems to be, however, that when we get our hooks into an government, we generally hang on despite all efforts to loosen our grip. As voters, we may make mistakes, but when we know what we want we get it to the extent permitted us.

These references, of course, are principally to the initiative and referendum system and the direct primary.

Thirty-eight states nominate national or state candidates, or both, by the primary system. Since 1924, Montana and North Carolina have abandoned the presidential primary and Vermont, Iowa and Minnesota had discarded it previously. Courts have acted against the primary laws in Alabama and Texas. But not one of the 38 states has thrown the primary overboard as a whole and it is becoming more and more popular despite the means of professional politicians.

Similarly, 18 states have the initiative and referendum in practical operation and none of them has abandoned it.

The primary allows the voters to choose party candidates instead of being forced to elect hand-picked men and the initiative allows them to initiate legislation which may be denied by an incompetent or corrupt legislature or to repeal legislation already passed.

Both systems, in operation for years, have shown weaknesses. They are susceptible even to corruption, but not dangerously so. They are sometimes influenced by heavily financed propaganda, especially if there is no effective altruistic mouthpiece to reach the voters.

Piles Are Absorbed Never To Return

likely that the people will decide more and more of these issues for themselves at the ballot box, instead of being forced to choose from two hodge-podge conglomerations of issues between insincere candidates.

Voters in 36 states voted directly on 194 measures last year, two-thirds of them proposals to amend state constitutions. Judson King, director of the National Popular Government league, who wrote many of the state I. and R. laws, says that of the measures voted on during 1926 in I. and R. states:

"Thirty-six related to changes in the structure of government of the administration of government, or the processes of political action; 20 had to do with changes in the taxation system or the rate and methods of taxation; four related to public ownership or regulation of public utilities; 10 dealt with education, including both the universities and public school systems; six were anti-prohibition; four were concerned with farm and labor legislation."

Voters have generally refused in these referenda to increase the salaries of public officials and show a strong tendency to improve bond issues. They voted progressively 39 times and conservatively 15 times in 1926, when the results could be so classified, according to King.

with the New Rug-to-Floor Nozzle, with new Weighted Waxer and Polisher

NOT ONLY BETTER but different. Royal's New Rug-to-Floor Nozzle gives practically double utility to the vacuum cleaner.

You clean the rug, then run off onto the bare floor and thoroughly clean that—without any adjustment whatever.

Does the floor need polishing?—with a simple FREE attachment on this new nozzle, a perfect wax film is spread; the wax is dried quickly by air, and then brought to a beautiful high gloss by the same method as a fine piano is polished. Animal hairs—most exasperating and often impossible to take up by other cleaners—disappear as by magic into this new wonder-nozzle.

With 62.5% more vacuum than previous Royals (which is more than any cleaner on the market) this nozzle gets all the embedded dirt from rugs, all the dust in cracks and corners, it noses close around heavy furniture, under radiators—cleaning and polishing fast and easily—all with no adjustment whatever!

prove bond issues. They voted progressively 39 times and conservatively 15 times in 1926, when the results could be so classified, according to King.

No one, apparently, has yet been bold enough to initiate a petition for referendum designed to abolish the I. and R. itself. But certain interests in Maine, identified with the Insull power interests, assembled enough signatures to obtain a referendum on whether the direct primary should be abolished. The pro-Insull folks wanted to nominate their own candidate for governor. The voters decided that they would nominate their own man and gave the proposal to abolish the primary a severe drubbing.

Friends of the I. and R. over the country are not always 100 per cent enthusiastic for it. This probably is because sometimes the other fellow's are approved. But they all seem to agree that its principal value is a deterrent against legislation which would not meet popular approval.

In Maine, and elsewhere, the I. and R. is known as "The Gun Behind the Door."

STRIKERS PLAN TO ADVANCE ON MINE

DENVER, Colo., Nov. 17.—Striking coal miners in northern Colorado planned to make another advance on the Columbine mine, near Erie, today, despite airplanes and machine guns with which state police are equipped to prevent picketing.

Following a declaration by Deputy Sheriff Bunyan of Weld county, that guards at the mines have orders to shoot if strikers enter the enclosure, strikers reiterated their intentions of entering the mine.

Governor Adams ordered 12 additional state police to the Columbine mine.

"....We saw Sunkist Oranges and Lemons displayed everywhere"

MANY Californians, returning from the east, casually remark that Sunkist oranges and lemons appeared to be conspicuously displayed everywhere.

To the public the universal distribution and display of California oranges and lemons merely means that these twin fruits can be readily purchased at any time or place.

But to the California Fruit Growers Exchange, which markets three-fourths of the California citrus crop, it means a goal achieved—an ambition realized.

For, as all merchandisers know, complete distribution doesn't just happen. Dealers everywhere don't buy products and put them in their show windows spontaneously. This salesmen's goal of perfection is something that must be built step by step with hard and patient work.

In the case of California oranges and lemons the selling organization of the California Fruit Growers Exchange covers the national fruit trade like a blanket.

Reporting to the central office in Los Angeles are 59 district sales offices, each with a trained staff responsible for sales in a certain prescribed territory.

No other farmers' organization has such complete and reliable knowledge of its markets as the California Fruit Growers Exchange. Good distribution to the wholesale markets is not a matter of guess work. The Exchange knows where every car can be sold to the best advantage because it has up-to-the-minute facts on market conditions everywhere. And it has an aggressive sales organization to take advantage of this knowledge.

But the efforts of the Exchange do not end with carload sales. To the retail trade it sends crews of dealer service men. Theirs is the task of getting the fruit attractively displayed in store windows and making sure it is offered at fair prices. This year these men helped 69,960 grocers, fruit dealers, soda fountains, hotels, and restaurants to display and sell more California oranges and lemons.

And as a final step, through its advertising, the Exchange sends its dealers new customers, bigger buyers—people who have been educated by advertising to feel that they should eat twice as many oranges and lemons as they did a few years ago, and that in buying they should specify, "Sunkist." Thus dealers have seen their sales grow to a point where they are glad, not only to handle California oranges and lemons, but to display them prominently.

So the off-hand remark, "we saw Sunkist oranges and lemons displayed everywhere," conveys more than ordinary satisfaction to members of the Exchange. It means that a good job has been done. It means convenience of purchase to the public, increased sales to the trade, and widest possible distribution for the California citrus industry. But it has been a task that the growers' organization willingly shouldered, for the fruit marketed through the Exchange inevitably benefits most by the sales effort, dealer service and advertising done by the Exchange.

Talk to the manager of the nearest Exchange Association or District Exchange. Or, write for further information to California Fruit Growers Exchange, Box 530, Station "C," Los Angeles.

WHAT THE EXCHANGE IS...

The California Fruit Growers Exchange is a non-profit organization of over 11,000 California citrus fruit growers, producing about 75% of the California citrus crop, operated by and for them on a cooperative basis. Its object is to develop the national and international market for California oranges, lemons and grapefruit by continuous advertising, and to provide a marketing organization that will sell the fruit of its members most advantageously and at the least expense. Receipts from sales, less only the actual cost of operation, are returned to the growers. Applications for membership are received through all of the Exchange's 201 local packing associations, 23 District Exchanges or at the central office in Los Angeles.

NEW ZONE LAW IN EFFECT SOON

Unless strenuous objections are raised at tonight's open meeting of the Anaheim city council in the city hall, the mother colony soon will have a zoning ordinance regulating the type of structures for the different zones.

These zones and the types of structures that may be built in them are as follows: Zone A, residential, for single family type dwellings only; Zone B, multiple dwellings, restricted to residence building of no more than two stories and for the use of not more than two families; Zone C, multiple dwellings, apartment houses for two or more families, not more than four stories in height; Zone D, neighborhood commercial districts, all buildings must not be more than two stories in height and must be of fire proof construction; Zone E, business district, in which all wholesale and retail enterprises shall be placed, industries to be permitted where not more than 50 per cent of floor space is given over to industrial purposes; it is also provided that no structure in this district rise more than six stories; Zone F, light industrial district, all industries prohibited that may be detrimental to the health, safety, public morals, etc.; Zone G, heavy industrial district; Zone H, special zone in which buildings may be erected that do not come specifically under any of the other zone classifications.

The ordinance is not retroactive and will in no way effect buildings now standing or under construction, it is said.

LA HABRA

Knocks Out Rheumatic Agony In 5 Days

C. S. Kelley Drug Co. Offers Trial of Wonder Working Capsules on Money Back Basis

Why men and women will go on suffering terrible rheumatic agony and run the risk of being permanently crippled and helpless is beyond all understanding, say druggists, when a few days use of those little wonder capsules Allenhu No. 2 will bring about glorious relief and quickly clear up every twinge and ache—even for those who have been victims for years.

To back up this statement, to prove every sufferer of rheumatic torture in this country that the claims of Allenhu No. 2 are not exaggerated in any way, C. S. Kelley and every druggist who is dispensing the quick-acting remedy make this offer—a fair square offer. If ever one was made:

If after using Allenhu Number 2 Capsules as directed for 5 days there is a pain or ache left—if you are not free from rheumatic distress your money will be promptly refunded without comment.—Adv.

GREAT ENGINEERING FEAT ACCOMPLISHED IN HIGH SIERRAS
Completing its Mono-Bear diversion system, the Southern California Edison company made 182,000 acre feet of water available for use through its system of five power plants.

COMPTON MAN BUYS 14-ACRE CITRUS GROVE

Papers were in escrow today for the sale by Roy I. Smith of his 14-acre orange grove on East Seventeenth street to J. E. Powell of Compton.

While the consideration was not revealed, it is reported that the sale is an all-cash transaction. It is understood that a son of the purchaser will reside on the ranch property, now occupied by Smith and his family. The location of the tract is just west of the point where the tracks of the Southern Pacific branch to Tusling cross Seventeenth street.

Charles Aubrey, of this city, was the agent in the deal.

3 WELLS STARTED IN COUNTY IN WEEK

Three new oil wells were started in Orange county last week, according to information today from the office of the state oil and gas supervisor. Twenty-one wells were started in California, with the Long Beach field leading with six and the Kern river field second with five. The Richfield (Atwood) field and the Rincon fields had two new wells each, with one each in Rosecrans, Huntington Beach, McKittrick, Casimira, Balridge and Santa Barbara county.

The wells started in this county were in the S. W. Lea No. 2 at Huntington Beach and the Union Oil company's Stern No. 5 and the Standard Oil company's Locke No. 4, both at Atwood.

BIG PROJECT COMPLETED BY EDISON FIRM

Bringing to a successful conclusion one of the most difficult pieces of engineering yet accomplished on its world renowned Big Creek-San Joaquin river hydro-electric project in the high Sierras of Fresno county, the Southern California Edison company yesterday turned the water through the Mono-Bear diversion system making 182,000 additional acre feet of water available for use through its entire series of five power plants, according to word received in Santa Ana by W. L. Deimling, district manager. This is slightly more than the combined storage of Florence and Huntington lakes and will help to fill the great new reservoir at Shaver lake, which is coming into operation next spring. This work has all been under the direction of George C. Ward whose genius in connection with hydro-electric development has received national and academic recognition.

Mono and Bear creeks are situated across a mountain ridge from the San Joaquin river, on which river much of the construction work of the Edison company's hydro-electric project has been carried on. Through the construction of diversion dams on both Mono and Bear creeks, and the boring of two converging tunnels, it has been possible to bring all of the water from these two streams to the head of a long inverted siphon, stretching across the bed of the south fork of the San Joaquin river, thence to the Florence lake tunnel. In planning for this great water reclamation project, the company took into consideration the fact that it had but seven months each year in which to carry on the work, and all effort was used toward bringing the work to completion prior to December 1, 1927.

In bringing these two streams into subjection the Edison company has brought into use an average yearly run-off of 182,000 acre feet. The capacity of the

Fair Ground Grove Sold For $32,000

Mrs. Helen M. Wright, of Long Beach, has sold 20 acres of three-year-old valencias on Placencia avenue to Walter Schmid of Garden Grove, Alfred Holve of Monrovia, and William Holve, of Fullerton, it was announced today by Ray Goodell, local realtor. The purchasers own other Orange county property. The consideration, according to report, was $32,500.

The property is just north of the Orange county fair grounds and was purchased from Jake Schumacher by Mrs. Wright nearly three years ago.

It is understood the new owners will maintain the property as an investment.

Mrs. Wright formerly lived in Orange.

Mono-Bear siphon is 600 second feet or 3000 meters inches, which is 50 per cent greater than the maximum capacity of the Los Angeles aqueduct. In 24 hours, the siphon can deliver close to half a billion gallons of water into the Edison company's great storage reservoirs. Translated into electric energy, this tremendous flow of water means that the Edison company has 760 million kilowatt hours of electricity available. In significance, this particular task ranks second only to the bringing into use of the record breaking Florence lake tunnel, the 13-mile bore which was completed in February, 1925.

EASTWOOD FIRE BUILDING WILL BE READY SOON

Rapid progress is being made on the new fire hall at 412 Eastwood avenue and it is expected that the fire company will be able to move into its new quarters in three weeks.

Work of placing the composition roof on the building is now under way. The building is of stucco and hollow tile and is being erected at a cost of approximately $7500.

The Smart and Final company expect to finish work of altering the former fire hall on East First street within 30 days. The company acquired the property from the city after the Eastwood site was bought.

Vol. 2 November 17, 1927 No. 36

Published each week in the interests of the people of Santa Ana and vicinity by the Barr Lumber Company.

One of our friends wrote to us the other day and said that, barring the footgear, the costume of the girl today could be sent through the mail for 4c and some of the girls almost looked as though they were on their way back from the post office.

And when women buy now, the less they buy the higher it goes.

We still have on hand one Marshall and Stearns folding bed, which we will sell at a bargain.

There are three factors that influence most people in buying or building a home for their own, location, appearance and price. They want a home in a congenial neighborhood, the looks of which they will be proud, and at the same time it must be within their means.

However, construction today is more important than either appearance, location or price. Up-to-date houses today are using Celotex in the walls and roof because this material gives the home several distinctive advantages. It is more strongly built, warmer in winter and cooler in summer, more free from dampness and less expensive to heat.

CITY TEACHERS LEAGUE PLANS FOR BIG MEET

John Henry Lyons of Pasadena, supervisor of music in the Pasadena schools and an entertainer of the soldiers in France during the world war, will present the principal address Tuesday night, November 22, at a City Teachers' league dinner to be held in the Ebell clubhouse, according to announcements made at last night's meeting of the league.

L. L. Beeman, head of the social science department at the Santa Ana high school, will make a short talk on investments at this meeting.

Last night's meeting was devoted in part to a discussion of the reasons why a student desires to leave school. D. K. Hammond, principal of the high school, is warned by the teachers if they know that any student is planning to leave school and if the student is worthy of help Hammond does all in his power to make it possible for the student's remaining. He stated that if financial worries are responsible for a pupil's leaving school the Rotary club often lends the boy or girl enough money to complete his or her high school education.

The results of a survey made at the University of Southern California were announced. It was that 38 per cent of the students entered there without recommendations excel 50 per cent of the students who have recommendations.

Announcement was made of the fact that Santa Ana was the first city in California to report 100 per cent membership in the National Educational association.

Discussion of the health program being attempted under the direction of Miss Elizabeth Curtis, high school nurse, brought out the facts that owing to the health work accomplished already in public schools the life of the average person has been increased from 40 or 45 years to 55 years.

Miss Curtis stated that educators of today are beginning to realize that health is as important as education which has resulted in definite health programs being arranged by school officials in many cities.

Miss Curtis asked that teachers and parents co-operate with her in seeing that children are sent to physicians when occasion demands.

Veterans Attend Anaheim Funeral

ANAHEIM, Nov. 17.—Members of Calumfit Camp, No. 26, and Calumfit auxiliary No. 39, Department of California, United Spanish War Veterans, attended the funeral of Amos V. Wheeler, who was a member of the camp, here yesterday.

The Rev. Benjamin Heywood, pastor of the White Temple Methodist church, Anaheim, conducted the services and the United Spanish War Veterans and the Knights of Pythias held joint services at the grave.

Three veterans, Past Commander H. A. Wassum, Quartermaster John Markwalder and Trustee J. W. Nourse and three members of the K. P. lodge of Anaheim were the pallbearers.

The firing squad of Calumfit camp, under the command of officer of the day J. C. Farrar, and with H. T. Reed as color sergeant, was composed of Past Commander W. W. Tantlinger and M. C. Cooper, Trustee C. J. Christenson, Color Sergeant C. A. Lindquist and U. S. Glaze, F. T. Deaver, J. H. Shav and W. H. Showalter, fired a volley over the grave and Bugler G. V. Area blew "Taps."

Other members attending were Dept. Com. Charles E. Dixon, Junior Vice Commander William Kelsey and F. W. Chapman, M. R. Kellogg, C. C. Graham, H. E. Sleeper, J. Charles, E. H. Elmsner and A. Davignon.

Thirty members of Calumfit auxiliary were in attendance as well as many members of the K. of P. lodge and Pythian Sisters temple.

The widow, Mrs. Rena Wheeler, is one of the officers of the auxiliary.

WOMEN OF MIDDLE AGE

Praise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Mrs. Annie Kinski of 526 1st Avenue, Milwaukee, Wis., writes that she became so weak and run-down that she was not able to do her housework. She saw the name Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in the paper and said to her husband, "I will try that medicine and see if it will help me." She says she took six bottles and is feeling much better.

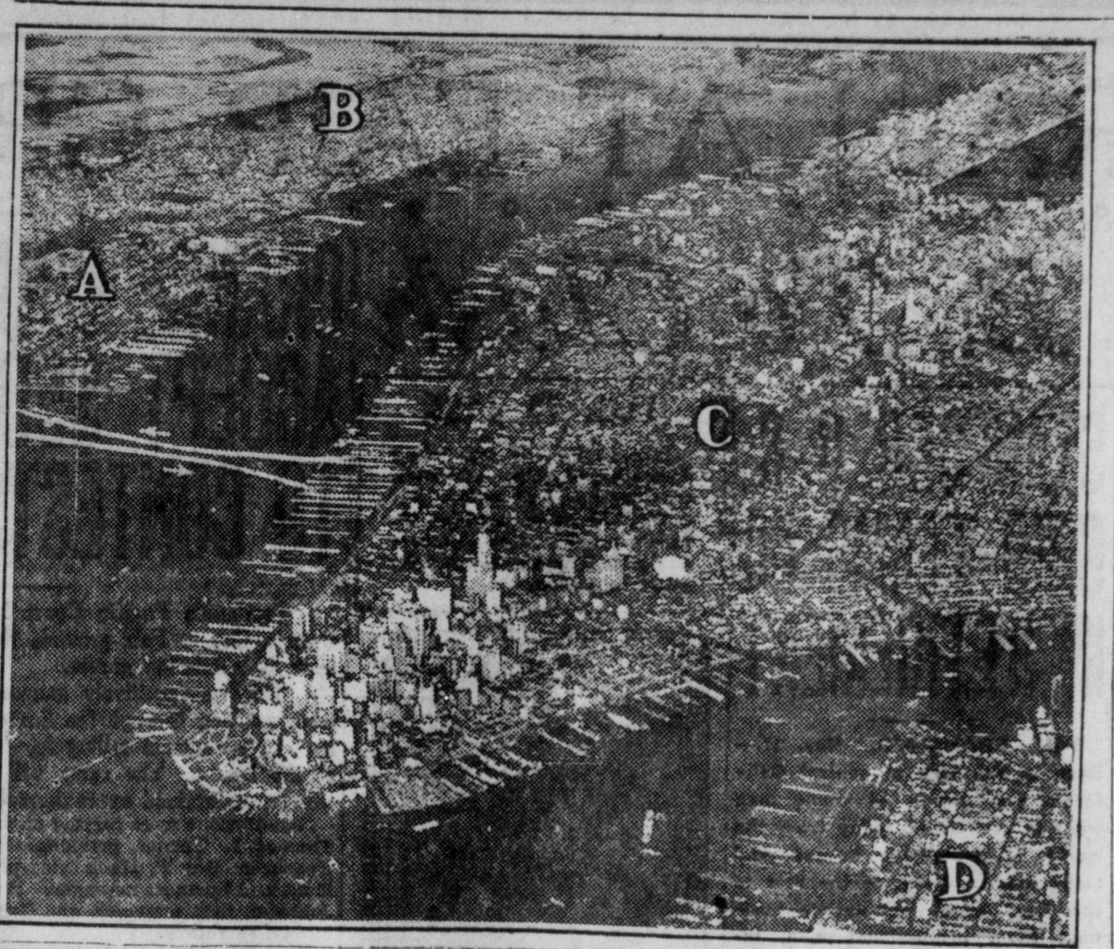

Mrs. Mattie Adams, who lives in Downing Street, Brewton, Ala., writes as follows: "A friend recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and since taking it I feel like a different woman."

With her children grown up, the middle-aged woman finds time to do the things she never had time to do before—read the new books, see the new plays, enjoy her grandchildren, take an active part in church and civic affairs. Far from being pushed aside by the younger set, she finds a full, rich life of her own. That is, if her health is good.

Thousands of women past fifty say they owe their health to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

VOCATIONAL GUIDANCE TOPIC OF DISCUSSION AT MEETING OF KIWANIS CLUB WEDNESDAY

High schools of the future will have one objective—opening of opportunity to an individual with aptitude by providing him the facilities for development of his particular talent.

That, in brief, is the substance of an address made yesterday at the meeting of the Santa Ana Kiwanis club by George Holmes, vocational director at the high school. His subject was vocational guidance.

Asserting that one of the problems of the high school of today and the future is to develop proper training for boys and girls who do not intend continuing their studies in the high branches of learning, Holmes quoted figures in which it was shown that the nation over that 50 per cent of the students drop out of high school during the second year and that 64 per cent reach the junior year. Of the 38 per cent completing high school, approximately 7 per cent go to colleges. He made the further statement that 85 per cent of pupils getting to the fifth grade drop out of school before completing the high school course.

"We must provide a more varied curriculum to keep boys and girls in high school," the speaker commented, as he pointed out that modern day schools are turning their attention to vocational training. He emphasized the fact that in the trade schools teachers who have had practical experience in the trades they teach are being given preference in faculty employment, and he stressed the point that formerly it was the custom for college professors with theories who attempted to teach the trades.

Training Necessary
Emphasis was given the point that scientists of education have gotten away from the old belief that it was necessary for students to include in their courses languages and other studies it was known they never have use for after completing school. At that time it was thought that such training was necessary to stimulate the mental activity of the student. Holmes said it is conceded now that it is a waste of time for a pupil to study German, or any other language, unless he expects to use the language in his later life.

The trade courses in the local high school are working with wonderful success, the instructor declared, and then he stressed the point of the new system being tried out here, with pupils of the various grades attending school one week and working the alternate week in a business house of the line in which he is being educated. Appreciation was expressed for the co-operation being given the plan by local business men.

Holmes said that it was necessary for boys and girls to determine their future occupation as early in life as possible, and he said the trade courses being given offered the opportunity for vocational guidance men to more intelligently advise a pupil. Observations made in the trade school make it possible for the director to determine whether a pupil will be successful in the trade chosen, or whether he would be more successful in some other branch of industry.

Individual Work
The value of individual training was emphasized, and the speaker declared that the successful high school of the future will be that school that gives greater consideration to the individual than to the group.

J. A. Cranston, superintendent of schools, was program chairman, and the program was strictly one developed from the schools of the city. A group of Mexican children from the Artesia school was introduced in three songs, under the direction of Jessie Boyd, music instructor in the school. Mrs. Frances Hunt Beeson, superintendent of music in the schools, accompanied at the piano. The Kiwanis club is furnishing milk daily for the "penny" lunches at the Artesia school, and the Mexican children were delighted at the opportunity to show their appreciation by appearing before the club as a singing group, according to Mrs. Beeson. Following the numbers on the program, the school children were treated to ice cream and cake at the inn, with D. N. Kelly as the host.

LAGUNA CLUB TO IMPROVE BUILDING

LAGUNA BEACH, Nov. 17.—As a result of authority the directors of the Community club to go ahead with alterations and additions to the Community Club building, a conference with M. M. DeAhna, Los Angeles architect, who drew preliminary plans, was held at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. DeAhna, with the directors to go over the changes which will be made, with instructions to the architect to draft final plans. The addition to be made to the building is to house the library in the upper room, according to plans discussed with the Library association. The club house is to be plastered and given a coat of stucco.

BOY SCOUTS MEET IN PURINTON PARK

With completion of improvements at "Purinton Park" on Flower street, the location now is scheduled for the scene each weekend of a camp outing by Boy Scouts of the county.

The week-end camp is designed to give Scouts opportunity for instruction in outdoor work, cooking, carpenter work, etc., it was pointed out today by Ed Murphey, scoutmaster of Orange Troop 54, who will be in charge of the general program of the camp each week. Members of any troop in the county may arrange to pass the latter part of the week there if they wish, and at their pleasure. It is expected eight or ten boys will camp there Friday night and Saturday.

Worker Hurt In Bean Warehouse

SMELTZER, Nov. 17.—Delphina Duran an employee at the Golden West warehouse, was injured Tuesday afternoon when he became caught in the electric elevator. He was working alone at the time. A sack became caught and in unfastening it he released the elevator, which struck the back of his head. He was held by the elevator until discovered by a fellow workman. He was rushed at once to a physician, who found that his nose was broken.

AUTO CLUB TO GIVEN DIVORCE POST SIGNS IN BECAUSE HURRY ORANGE COUNTY WAS TOO NOISY

Voicing their belief that highway guide posts should not carry advertising and that they should be of a uniform type, the board of supervisors today had recorded on their records a resolution giving the Automobile Club of Southern California the sole right to erect road signs in Orange county. The club is to have this right as long as its work in this respect is satisfactory.

The automobile club has long furnished the majority of these posts and the supervisors confirmed the wisdom of established practice in passing the resolution at yesterday's session. The document declares that the use of advertising is likely to detract the attention of motorists and increase the danger of riding on the highways.

A letter from the Costa Mesa Lions club pointing out the fact that the intersections at Seventeenth street and Newport road, as well as Grand avenue and Newport road are becoming notorious for the number of accidents occurring there, led to discussion on the installation of buttons at those points. The letter was referred to Nat Neff, highway superintendent. F. W. Slabaugh, county purchasing agent, has reported that the Automobile club is securing the buttons for these intersections. The letter declared that 17 accidents have taken place during the past year at the locations mentioned.

The inalienable right to a good night's rest is believed to have been upheld today by Superior Judge E. J. Marks, who awarded an interlocutory decree of divorce to Mrs. Rachel V. Morales yesterday when she told him that her husband's loud talking not only kept her awake but also prevented her parents from sleeping in the next house.

After considerable difficulty in getting along because of Stephen Morales' asserted shiftlessness, the family took up its residence in a small house at the rear of Mrs. Morales' parents' home. The garulous spouse, apparently, could not find time to vent his decided views regarding his wife during the day and continued his dissertations far into the night.

Lack of sleep caused by his vocal efforts is believed to have tried the nerves of his wife to the utmost, resulting in the request for divorce. The couple were married in 1921 and separated in 1925. The custody of one child was awarded to Mrs. Morales.

H. B. BAND TO GET PRIZE ON FRIDAY

HUNTINGTON BEACH, Nov. 17.—The prize won by the Huntington Beach municipal band in the Armistice day parade will be presented Friday night at a banquet given in the city auditorium at a community dinner. Gilmore's orchestra will furnish music. Reservations for 250 guests have been made. The women of the American Legion auxiliary will serve the meal.

RED CROSS CHAPTER PLANNED AT LAGUNA

LAGUNA BEACH, Nov. 17.—As a result of $400 being collected for the Red Cross, it has been decided to call together the 400 members to call together the 400 members in a local chapter of the Red Cross or an auxiliary chapter. The date of the organization meeting is set for Tuesday at 2:30 p. m., with Mayor Thomas A. Cummings presiding over the meeting.

$249.12 Balance In C. C. Treasury

NEWPORT BEACH, Nov. 17.—The Exchange club directors met Tuesday night and an audit of the books according to Secretary G. C. Macleod, showed a balance of $249.12 after various donations for club work had been paid.

The directors decided that members absent four times in succession without a valid written excuse would automatically become suspended from the club. Those absent one time without a good excuse will be fined 50 cents. The directors declared it would be better to have a smaller membership really attending than a large membership which only came spasmodically.

will be Long Beach, Pasadena or Santa Ana, will get the winner.

One of the first skirmishes in the playoff series will be Thanksgiving day at Pomona where
"Chief" Newman's Covina Colts and Archie Nisbet's Pomona Cardinals collide.

Santa Maria, which defeated San Luis Obispo, 20 to 0, in the opening round game last week, will draw a bye this week, meeting the winner of the San Fernando valley playoff between Burbank and Van Nuys on November 26. It is probable that Burbank will be picked as the valley champion in spite of the outcome of the game, as Van Nuys is rated as a city school.

There will be no playoffs in Class C this year, according to Moore. The schedule for Class B teams will be arranged as soon as the different league winners are reported.

Games of November 26 as well as this Saturday will be of tremendous importance in deciding the titular ranking of Coast Preparatory league eleven because Long Beach, Pasadena and Santa Ana all face anything but set-ups that afternoon.

This week's contest will eliminate either Long Beach or Pasadena unless those old rivals tie.

On the other hand, if Pomona wins, the Sagehens have a good chance of annexing the title by the fact that they took on and defeated more league opponents than did the Bruins. At present the 7 to 7 tie played between the two schools leaves both with a perfect percentage in the win columns.

With the traditional Sagehen-Oxy animosity flaring at full blast, with titular honors involved and with the Tigers fighting for redemption in the public eye, fans are anticipating a close, hard-fight.

If Sande has done something other than give his mount as well as some of the other jockeys a rough time of it, the public should be apprised of the additional facts.

Earl Sande, premier jockey, deserves a better fate unless he has done more than merely crowd a horse that was trying to overtake his mount.

It might be a good thing for the turf game if the officials in charge were more alert to other flaws in the sport than merely rough riding in an effort to win.

Upperclass teams played in a series at Fullerton Tuesday. Both sophomore and freshman teams were invited to participate in the contests today but since there is no freshman class at the Santa Ana
high school, the local institution was to be represented only by sophomores.

are Misses Lillian Cole, captain;
Grace Anderson, Frances Birtcher,
Lena Brown, Mildred Crowl, Laura
Cummings, Myrtle Fitzsimmons,
Lucetta Gillins, Mildred Howard,
Kathryn Harbert, Mercedes
Holmes, Elsie Mills, Marjorie Reynolds, Roselind Schilling, Elsie

DESTINY TEAM PREPARES FOR 'RED' ASSAULT

Anaheim, Orange Fight to Remain Contenders in County League Pursuit

Tomorrow's Games
Brea-Olinda at Tustin.
Fullerton at Huntington Beach.
Anaheim at Orange.
Excelsior at Garden Grove.

Against an animated and picturesque background of pumping oil wells, a little team that may be a team of destiny will try to prove tomorrow that there is more truth than poetry in that ancient football wheeze: "The bigger they are the harder they fall."

Huntington Beach high school's eleven, regarded as just a football team until it shattered the myth of invincibility that surrounded the Orange squad, tackles another presumably unconquerable foe in "Shorty" Smith's "Big Red Team" from Fullerton and though Harry Sheue's Oilers are supposed to lose there is no law in the land that can be brought to bear against them if they should repeat their spectacular Armistice day upset.

Reds Will Have No Alibi
"The Big Red Team" will have no possible excuse if it is beaten.
Coach Smith certainly has had an excellent lever to use on his men in practice this week, verbally prodding them with the tidings of what happened to an over-confident Orange machine.

Fullerton is absolutely undefeated in conference circles and is undisputed leader of the Orange County Athletic league which swings into its next to last week with Friday's quarrels. Anaheim and Orange are right on the heels of the pace-makers but the schedule is so arranged that Huntington Beach, which made the same kind of a Garrison finish to tie for the tag in 1926, could break the tape first if it disposes of Fullerton and gets a "break" or two in the outcome of certain other important scuffles.

Huntington Beach has lost but once, then to Anaheim, 16 to 6, although it was held rather unexpectedly to a scoreless tie by Excelsior.

Anaheim Faces Orange
The Huntington Beach-Fullerton scramble will not be the only thing of the morning. There will be three other interesting al-tercations and at least one, the Orange-Anaheim melee at Orange, will result in the total eclipse of the conquered. It appears a toss-up but if psychology is good for anything Orange should be a favorite because Coach Stewart White has been able to work his charges into a savage mood by reminding them of their shortcom-

TO LEAD PHILLIES

Bert Shotton is back in the majors and back as a manager. He recently was appointed successor to "Stuffy" McInnis as manager of the Philadelphia Nationals. This former St. Louis Browns' star was manager of the Syracuse International League club last season.

TIGER FLOWERS IS DEAD AFTER N. Y. OPERATION

NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—"Tiger" Flowers, former middleweight boxing champion, died at 8 p. m. yesterday, following an operation for removal of a growth above his right eye. He was operated on at 3 p. m. at Dr. J. W. Fralick's private hospital. He died as he was regaining consciousness from the anesthetic.

Arrangements for the "Tiger's" funeral were being completed today.
Walt Miller, his manager, said that preliminary services would be held in New York and final services in Atlanta, Ga., Flowers' home.

Blows received in some of his 150 fights had caused the growth, according to Dr. Fralick.

Flowers was one of the most amazing boxers in the history of pugilism. In the ring the sheer fury of his attack had earned him the title of "Tiger," while in his every day life his tenderness and piety caused him to be made a deacon in a Negro Methodist church at Atlanta.

Was Southpaw Boxer
He was one of the three left-handed boxers ever to win the championship at any weight. Al Mc-Coy and Johnny Wilson, also mid-dleweights, were the other two southpaws who gained titles.

Speed and cleverness won most of Flowers' fights. However, from 1913 until 1927 he had won 47 of his 131 bouts by knockouts. He gained decision in 52 fights, was knocked out eight times, lost three decisions, fought two draws and engaged in 19 no decision bouts prior to 1927.

Flowers won the middleweight title from "Tiger" Greb on February 25, 1926, after 15 rounds of fighting. He successfully defended the title against Greb August 19, 1926, and lost it to Mickey Walker December 3 in the same year. Greb, incidentally, died

STANFORD, U. C. GRID TEAMS GO IN RETIREMENT

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 17.— Back in the hills of central California two groups of young men were in retirement today from the world of fraternity houses and class rooms. Much of the rest of the west coast population—business men, professional men, laborers, women and children—wondered which of those two groups could run the faster, punt farther, throw the pigskin more accurately and hit the line harder—the Bears of California or the "Big Red Herd" of Stanford.

The majority seemed to favor Stanford to win the western gridiron classic at Stanford stadium Saturday, in view of the showing made by the Cards against the west's powerful teams, —for betters on California wanted odds.

However, dopsters who picked California had good reasons for their choice.

The Cards, captained by Hal McCreery, defeated the strong, husky team of Washington and the Bears lost to Washington. Stanford tied the University of Southern California and California lost to the Trojans.
Those two teams are the outstanding contenders for Pacific conference honors with the Cardinals.

Stanford admittedly was lucky in defeating Washington, for the Huskies played dumb football and lost the game through blunders in generalship. On the other hand, California played the Huskies an even game, despite the 6 to 0 score.

Whether the breaks favored the Huskies, the two teams were as evenly matched as two teams could be, and it is doubtful whether a dry field would have made any material difference, unless possibly permitting the Bears to work their final, desperate offensive move successfully.

So, while the two teams rested today, preparatory to the supreme effort of the year, the west wondered, hazarded opinions, wagered and finally agreed that Saturday's game should be as thrilling as any of the long list of similar entertainments staged by the institutions.

Dempsey, Rickard Stuck In Elevator

NEWARK, N. J., Nov. 17.—
Jack Dempsey, Tex Rickard and their companions in the Dempsey-Kearns suit here were imprisoned for a few minutes yesterday in an elevator in the bottom of a shaft.
The car became stuck in a serious accident occurred circulated in the corridors. The elevator was able to reach the main floor after a few minutes.

JACK VS. JACK

It won't be long now before Jack Kearns, below, will know whether he is to collect the $333,333.33 he is asking the courts to make Jack Dempsey pay him. The case is due for settlement soon.

POLY 'B' TEAM OFF TOMORROW FOR ALHAMBRA

Hopelessly out of the race but still qualified to provide stern opposition for any of 'em, Coach Clyde Cook's Santa Ana high school Class B football team, will travel to Alhambra tomorrow for its next to last game of the season.

The Poly 130-pounders have suffered punishment in every start but one this fall and they only got a tie out of the one they didn't lose but they have made every game a close one. Their best played ruckus was the one of last Friday in which they outplayed the undefeated Pasadena league-leaders.

Alhambra hasn't won a game either so it will be a desperate battle for tailend supremacy.
Coach Walter Scott's Class C midgits will make their final stand of the season Saturday in a curtain-raiser to the Poly-Alhambra first string engagement here. The "Little Men" are in the second division, too, but have the little better record than the "Bees."

leagues follow:

SOPHOMORE CO-EDS IN CASABA TOURNEY

A squad of 16 girls, composing Santa Ana high school's sophomore basketball squad, journeyed to Anaheim today to play in the second series of playday tournaments that are being conducted among seven schools of Orange county.

Lots were to be drawn just before the matches to determine opponents.

Upperclass teams played in a series at Fullerton Tuesday. Both
sophomore and freshman teams
were invited to participate in the
no freshman class at the Santa Ana
high school, the local institution
sophomores.

Members of the sophomore squad
are Misses Lillian Cole, captain;
Grace Anderson, Frances Birtcher,
Lena Brown, Mildred Crowl, Laura
Cummings, Myrtle Fitzsimmons,
Lucetta Gillins, Mildred Howard,
Kathryn Harbert, Mercedes

nolds, Roselind Schilling, Elsie

ORANGE COUNTY BOOSTERS ACCEPT $5000 CONTRACT; 10 CONTESTS GUARANTEED

Portland's Pacific Coast league baseball club will train at the Orange County Fair grounds this spring and will play a series of at least 10 exhibition games.

This was positively announced today by Orange county boosters who, working through the Santa Ana Chamber of Commerce, accepted by wire a contract calling for a $5000 guarantee for training expenses of the Ducks. The camp will be established about February 15 and will be maintained approximately five weeks.

Negotiations were carried on with Thomas L. Turner, president and treasurer; Roy P. Mack, vice-president and business manager; Ernie Johnson, field manager, and Gus C.
Moser, secretary.

Those in charge of the project from this end included Guy J. Gilbert, Carl Mook, Bruce Switzer, Alex Brownridge, Jack Wallace and George Raymer, representatives of the Santa Ana Chamber of Commerce, and H. A. Lake, S. W.
Stanley, F. L. Purlinton, Ralph Mc-Fadden, George Kellogg, Ted Craig, John Ragan and Mrs. J. V. Kelsey, members of the Orange County Fair board.

Games with the Pittsburgh Pirates, champions of the National league, and the Chicago Cubs have been tentatively arranged by Portland, both these major league squads doing their conditioning in California every spring.

J. R. Hunt, manager of the Orange County Fair, has been "loaned" as manager to the County Committee which will immediately plunge into the task of disposing of 1000 books, good for 10 games and to be sold at $5 a book, to finance the proposition.

Headquarters will be established in every community in the county.
Tickets will be available at various places in these communities and a serious effort will be made to make it a county-wide project. Advertising that will accrue through press notices dispatched all over the county will be shared by every Orange county city.

American Legion posts, Elk lodges and various service clubs already have endorsed the plan and will give it their unqualified support, according to Hunt.

Tickets are now on the press,
Hunt said. They will be available within a few days.

TWO JACKS' TRIAL TO REOPEN MONDAY

NEWARK, N. J., Nov. 17.—
After postponement today until Monday of the trial of the $333-333.33 suit of Jack Kearns against Jack Dempsey, reports were circulated again that the suit would be settled out of court.

Rickard and Dempsey were not in court when Judge Runyon announced that because of the illness of Arthur F. Driscoll, Dempsey's trial counsel, the hearing would be postponed until Monday morning at 10 o'clock.

Kearns and his counsel were present, however, and denied knowledge of any new move to settle the case out of court.

COUGAR SQUAD DUE IN L. A. TOMORROW

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 17.—Washington State, undefeated and advancing the dominant "Butch" Meeker, quarterback, as one of the coast's most brilliant gridiron satellites, will arrive in Los Angeles tomorrow to play U. S. C. in a conference football game in the Coliseum Saturday.

Washington State with 14 letter men to start the season was looked on as a logical title contender.
Coach Hollingbery, however, suffered a series of disappointments including defeats by Washington and the Oregon Aggies and ties with Mt. St. Charles and Idaho.

Howard Jones will probably use Captain Morley Drury at quarterback despite a battered eye the star received in practice this week.
Moses, sub fullback, will again fill Edelson's shoes.

Hawaii Coach Will Fly To Claremont

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 17.—
Coach Otto Klum and Captain Bill Kaao of the University of Hawaii football team will fly from the dock here Saturday afternoon to Claremont in order to witness the Occidental-Pomona game. Hawaii, with two prior victories over Occidental, will try for a third, Thanksgiving.

POLYTES WORK ON DEFENSE TO STOP MOOR ACE

While Coach Bill Foote, the astute "scout," held "the papers" and showed "Alhambra" what to do, Santa Ana high school's entire football squad went through a two-hour seminar at Poly field yesterday learning what to expect in the way of running plays when it stacks up against the dangerous Alhambra Moors here Saturday afternoon.

Foote has spent all his weekends this season scanning the plays of Poly's opponents and then Head Coach "Tex" Oliver works out a defense for them and gives it to his charges. The Foote-Oliver combination has functioned well all season and they don't want to fall down now that the schedule is so nearly completed.

Most of the attention was devoted to the plays on which Ory Mohler, the wild running captain of the Moors, who is said to be harder to stop than Bill Mittel-stedt, the clever Long Beach broken field genius. Mohler is a one-man team, doing virtually all of the back-packing, forward passing and kicking. If he is slowed down Santa Ana need have no fear of the Moore running attack, it is said.

Dud Shaw, Poly's regular quarterback, was expected to don a uniform today for the first time in nearly a week and resume his activities with the first string.
His infected foot is much improved but Oliver is hardly expected to take a chance on using him this Saturday. Shaw is a brainy field general, a good intererfer and an especially strong defensive man, perhaps the best on the squad, and he will be missed but he will not be at his best for another week yet.

Oliver continues to intimate that he will start his heavy linemen and hold out their offensive forwards until the time is ripe but the railbirds believe "Tex" is just being tricky and that he will come with the regular lineup, to-wit:
Cooke, Warner, Derickson, Reith-

BARNARD, NEW LEAGUE PREXY, LIKES TO WORK

By CHARLES E. AHRENS
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

CLEVELAND, Nov. 17.—Brooklyn and Cleveland were battling for a championship in the 1920 world's series.

Three men were on bases and Elmer Smith, outfielder and slugger extraordinary was at the plate. The Brooklyn pitcher unwound his arm, there was a mighty crack, and the pellet rode over the fence to the street beyond.

After the game a mad rush, automobiles, hub-bub and street cars. And then, later, some one met Ernest S. Barnard, newly appointed president of the American league.

"Wasn't that home run on Smith's a corker?" the same one asked.

There Was Work to Do
Barnard, in his characteristic droll way, replied: "I don't know. There was work to do and I was at my desk."

That's the new president of the American league. Over a flat-topped desk he has made baseball history, and yet when the club of which he was then vice president, was playing in a world series, he was too busy to see the game.

The pen of Barnard began its battle for baseball early in the twelfth century when as sporting editor of a Columbus newspaper he wrote vigorous editorials in defense of the pastime. Baseball then was comparatively young.

In 1903 he was made secretary of the Cleveland baseball club. He left his post on the newspaper to enter a field of work he felt to be his lifetime occupation.

Seldom Saw Ball Game
Year after year he struggled at his desk, seldom seeing a ball game. One day in the year 1908, Addie Joss and Ed Walsh were out on the diamond engaged in one of those pitching battles that have been forgotten since the advent of the lively ball. A park attendant, thinking Barnard would like to see the game, rushed into the secretary's office. "They're making baseball history out here, Barney," he said, "you'd better come."

Barnard looked up from his flat-topped desk and smiled as he answered: "I'd hate to miss it, but there's work to be done."

On the death of James Dunn, owner of the team, Barnard was elevated to the presidency, a position which he held up to the time he was appointed president of the American league.

ZORILLA BEATS LA HOOD
WILMINGTON, Calif., Nov. 17.—By making a strong finish, Santiago Zorilla, Panamanian featherweight, won a 10-round decision over Dixie La Hood, Butte, in the main event of a boxing card here last night.

SURE OF JOBS

The pitching staff excepted, only two regulars of last year's Cleveland team, Joe and Luke Sewell, are certain of their places in the lineup of the Indians. Luke, top, has developed into one of the best catchers in the majors, while Joe, despite a very ordinary season in 1927, must still be rated the best shortstop in the American league.

Indians Pass To New Club Owners

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Nov. 17.—The Cleveland Indians today officially became the property of a syndicate composed entirely of Cleveland millionaires.

Alva Bradley, new president, and that of the syndicate, announced he had received the majority holding of Mrs. James C. Dunn, and that her share of the approximately $500,000 asked for the club has been paid.

Ban Johnson Goes Back To Chicago

EXCELSIOR SPRINGS, Mo., Nov. 17.—Ban Johnson, former president of the American league, is on his way to his home in Chicago after partially recuperating from an illness in a sanitarium here. His condition was reported as much improved.

LONG'S HORSES FULLERTON AND IN SHAPE FOR N. B. TO CLASH BORDER RACING ON TOMORROW

TIJUANA RACETRACK, Mex., Nov. 17.—"Fit and ready."

This tip is out on Baron Long's horses. It comes from the clockwork, and concerns the band of clever two and three-year-olds, the well known Southern California sportsman will race at the Tijuana meeting which opens Thanksgiving day.

A likely appearing lot are these young horses under the training of George Mayberry. Most of them were raised at the extensive Rancho Valle de las Viejas, the well known breeding establishment, of 1000 acres, which Long maintains in San Diego county.

With a few exceptions, these racers are the sons and daughters of the well known California sires, Runnymede and Hand Grenade. A few were raced with marked success at the last Tijuana meeting and these Plata Real and Tod Sloan appear ready to begin where they left off last season.

Both are considered sure starters in the Thanksgiving Handicap, a dash of six furlongs, the headliner of opening day.

Others in the string are Tondelero and Miss Alma, both three-year-olds and the two-year-olds Judge Schilling, Cuevas, Ensenada, Bontilla, Writ G. Bowman, Orcl, Dr. Crabtree, Teacote, Joya, Pretty Pol, Betty Strayer, Capallon, Gabby and Dona Aggie.

In choosing names for his horses, Baron Long has honored friends and acquaintances and also taken the names of small towns in territory contiguous to his breeding farm. Judge Schilling was named in honor of George W. Schilling, the track racing secretary and one of the placing judges; Cuevas for Sr. Manuel Pinay Cuevas, one of the attorneys representing the jockey club in Mexico; Ensenada for the Mexican city of this name; Writ G. Bowman, for the millionaire sportsman of Tijuana and San Diego; Orcl for Sr. Juan R. Orcl, another of the jockey club's attorneys; Teacote for a Mexican town; Betty Strayer for a niece of Long's and Dr. Crabtree for the track physician.

Bowling News

The Santa Ana bowling fraternity was interested today in the announcement that A. T. (Bert) Myre, of Long Beach, has purchased the Anaheim Bowling academy from George Strotz and Adolph Hirsch. Myre formerly was one of the promoters of the bowling parlors that were located on West Center street. Strotz will assume charge of a new bowling palace at San Bernardino. Howard Strotz, who has been acting manager of the Anaheim concern for several weeks, will remove to Los Angeles.

FOOTBALL BRIEFS

CHAMPAIGN, Ill., Nov. 17.—"In different practice sessions have caused Coach Bob Zupke to slip. Zupke is hoping it is the cold and mud, and not physical weariness, which has taken much of the pep out of his players.

WEST POINT—Taking advantage of light workouts, Sprague, Cagle, Wilson and Brentnall are practicing place kicking in an effort to overcome the weakness in that feature.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass.—Although several of the Crimson regulars are missing from practice, the entire eleven is expected to be in shape for Saturday's meeting with Yale. Joe Potter, the 17-year-old prodigy of the squad, will handle the drop kicking.

SOUTH BEND, Ind.—Six Notre Dame regulars have been announced as definitely out of the Drake game Saturday. They are Viedisch and Walsh, ends; Foley and Gais, tackles; Wynne, fullback, and Dahman, halfback. All were injured in the Army game last week.

MOSCOW, Idaho—Charlie Erb and 26 of his Vandal football players will leave tonight for Portland where they meet Oregon State Saturday. The big Idaho team is in good condition.

CORVALLIS, Ore.—The Oregon State football team in excellent condition, with no one on the injured list and were slight favorites to win the football game from the University of Idaho at Portland Saturday.

PULLMAN, Wash.—A college romance will be climaxed by a wedding following the Washington State-U. S. C. football game at Los Angeles Saturday when Miss Kathleen Scott, W. S. C. junior, becomes the bride of "Buck" Graham, member of the "Buck" football team. They will be married at the home of "Babe" Hollinsworth, coach, in San Francisco after the game.

OAKLAND—Coach "Slip" Madigan of St. Mary's college of Oakland, believed his galloping Gais will be stronger when they meet the University of Pacific tomorrow than at any time during the season. The teams are in the Far Western conference.

SANTA CLARA—After a defeat handed to the Stanford Cards last week the University of Santa Clara Broncos were confident of victory over the Fresno State Teachers at Fresno Friday.

1000 EGGS In EVERY HEN

If You Keep Chickens CUT THIS OUT
"The great trouble with the poultry business has always been that the laying life of a hen was too short," says Henry Traford, International Poultry Expert and Breeder, for nearly eighteen years Editor of Poultry Success.

The average pullet lays 150 eggs. If kept the second year, she may lay 100 more. Then she goes to market. Yet, it has been scientifically established that every pullet is born or hatched with over one thousand minute eggs in her system—and will lay them on a highly profitable basis over a period of four to six years' time if given proper care.

Coach Richter intends to start Dutton at quarter, it is understood, and relieve his smart little Japanese ball-packer, Tanaka, of all worry except that of packing the old apple. Tanaka has called the plays in the past.

RESOLUTION OF INTENTION

No. 1843

A RESOLUTION OF THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF SANTA ANA, CALIFORNIA, DECLARING THEIR INTENTION TO ORDER THE IMPROVING OF FAIRVIEW STREET FROM THE NORTH LINE OF TRACT NO. 352, RECORDED IN BOOK 15, PAGES 15 AND 16, MISCELLANEOUS MAPS, RECORDS OF ORANGE COUNTY, CALIFORNIA, TO THE EXISTING WATER MAIN AT THE SOUTH LINE OF FAIRVIEW AVENUE IN SAID CITY, DECLARING THE SAID WORK NECESSARY AND BEING OF MORE THAN LOCAL OR ORDINARY PUBLIC BENEFIT, DECLARING THE DISTRICT TO BE BENEFITED THEREIN TO BE ASSESSED TO PAY THE COSTS AND EXPENSES THEREOF, DETERMINING THE TIME AND PLACE FOR HEARING OBJECTIONS TO SAID WORK OR IMPROVEMENT, OR TO THE EXTENT OF THE DISTRICT TO BE ASSESSED, OR BOTH:

The City Council of the City of Santa Ana, California, in accordance with the provisions of the Improvement Act of 1911 and the Improvement Bond Act of 1915, and amendments to said acts, do resolve as follows:

Section 1. That the public interest and convenience requires, and it is the intention of the City Council of the City of Santa Ana, California, to order the construction of the following described work and improvement in said City, to-wit:

That Parton Street in said City, from the North line of Tract No. 352, Book 15, Pages 15 and 16, Miscellaneous Maps, Records of Orange County, California, to the existing water main at the South line of Fairview Avenue be graded and paved with Portland Cement Concrete pavement from curb line to curb line, and where cross streets intersect, the grading and paving shall extend beyond the curb lines to the extended property lines of said streets, all as particularly described on and in accordance with the plans and specifications hereinafter mentioned.

The excavation for and construction of Portland Cement Concrete sidewalks upon and along the above described street, except where sidewalks now exist, all as particularly indicated on and in accordance with the plans and specifications hereinafter mentioned.

The excavation of trenches and the furnishing and laying therein of Salt Glazed Vitrified Clay Pipe, Main Sewer, together with Manholes, Flush Tank, and all necessary appurtenances thereto, upon and along the hereinbefore described street and connecting with the existing sewer at the North line of said Tract No. 352, to a point forty (40) feet south of the South line of Fairview Avenue, all as particularly indicated on and in accordance with the plans and specifications hereinafter mentioned.

The excavation of trenches and the furnishing and laying therein of Wrought Iron Sewer Connections, including all lead connections, corporation cocks, curb cocks, fittings and all necessary appurtenances thereto, from the cast iron water main to be installed as hereinbefore described at right angles thereto, and extending to a point one foot back of the curb and at the locations and depths as particularly indicated on and in accordance with the plans and specifications hereinafter mentioned.

Together with such other work or improvements as are noted on the plans or specifications which shall be considered as incidental to the above described work and improvement, and no additional compensation will be allowed therefor.

The work to be done as herein set forth shall include the furnishing of all labor, equipment and materials necessary for or appurtenant to the construction and completion of all work herein specified.

SECTION 2. CROSS-SECTIONS AND SPECIFICATIONS. Section 2. All of the foregoing work is fully set forth, delineated and described on the plans, profiles, cross-sections and detailed drawings known as "The Plans for Assessment District No. 1843," which plans, profiles, cross-sections, detailed drawings and specifications are on file in the Office of the City Engineer and are hereby referred to for the full and detailed description of the said proposed work or improvement, and adopted by Resolution No. 1842 on the 7th day of November, 1927, by the City Council of the City of Santa Ana, as the plans, profiles, cross-sections, detailed drawings and specifications for said work and improvement, and the Office of the City Clerk and by reference are incorporated in this Resolution of Intention the same as though set forth in full herein.

SECTION 3. GRADE. Section 3. That the grade to which the work shall be done and the improvement made which are provided for in this Resolution shall be the grade as set forth in the plans, profiles, cross-sections, detailed drawings and specifications hereinafter mentioned, and as shown on the profiles thereon on file in the Office of the City Engineer, to which said profiles reference is hereby made for the description of such grade.

SECTION 4. DESCRIPTION OF BONDS. Section 4. The said City Council does hereby declare and determine, and notice is hereby given, that said bonds to represent said assessments and to bear interest at the rate of six per cent per annum will be issued hereunder, in the manner provided in the "Improvement Bond Act of 1915," the last installment of said bonds shall be due on the 1st day of July next succeeding ten (10) months from the date of the said Resolution.

SECTION 5. DESCRIPTION OF ASSESSMENT DISTRICT. Section 5. That the contemplated work and improvement herein mentioned is in the opinion of said City Council of more than local or ordinary public benefit, and the expense of said work and improvement is made chargeable upon the district benefited thereby, and that said City Council does hereby declare and determine, and it is to be assessed to and improvement is bounded and described as follows:

Located in the City of Santa Ana, County of Orange, State of California, and particularly described as follows:

Beginning at the Southwest corner of Tract No. 352 as fully described on file in Miscellaneous Maps, Book 29, Page 15, Records of Orange County, thence West along the

ORANGE COUNTY FILES NEED COURT'S ORDER

Bringing into sharp relief the rumored controversy over the asserted failure of Orange county to provide aid for the unsupported families of prisoners in the county jail, D. G. Wettlin announced today that he would file a petition for the release of William Albert Culley, 28, on the ground that the county has failed to comply with a court order for the support of his wife and child.

An attempt was being made this morning to have the hearing before Superior Judge James L. Allen this afternoon, immediately after the filing of the petition.

Judge Allen granted probation to Culley on September 15, one condition being that he be incarcerated in the county jail for one year. He had pleaded guilty to a charge of contributing to the delinquency of a 14 year old girl at parties in Balboa and San Diego, where liquor is said to have flowed.

Observers were of the opinion that interest in developments might arise if the case was heard. Judge Allen is known to be somewhat incensed over the supposed failure of the county to comply with his order for the payment of wages to Culley for the support of his family. He recently stated that he would not sentence petty criminals to the jail when their families lacked support unless the county provided aid for them.

A recent amendment passed by the state legislature makes it possible for the supervisors to appropriate a fund for the support of such families. Formerly this could be done only in cases where the prisoner was sentenced on a charge of failing to provide for his family. It is now possible to use the fund for other cases as well. The question recently came before the board and it was suggested that $200 be set aside for the purpose. It had been pointed out that Orange county is the only one in the state where such aid is not given.

Culley's petition requests that he be released in order that he can earn the money necessary for the support of his wife and two year old daughter at Costa Mesa. It is said that she has not sufficient money for her maintenance since Culley went to jail.

Mr. and Mrs. D. V. Wilton and Cecil Burke, of Santa Ana were tried at the same time Culley appeared. They also received probation, one condition being that they serve two months in the county jail.

The impact of the blast shook nearby buildings and for a time residents feared an earthquake had occurred.

The injured, O. B. Cummings, J. C. Lane and Charles Kramer were operating the machine. They received first aid treatment for cuts and bruises.

Maps, Book 15, Pages 15 and 16, Records of Orange County, to the Southwest corner of Block E, Tract No. 869, as per map thereof on file in Miscellaneous Maps, Book 28, Page 29, Records of Orange County; thence North along the West line of said Tract No. 869, and a Northernly extension of said line to the surveyed center line of Fairview Avenue; thence East along the surveyed center line of Fairview Avenue to an intersection with the Northernly extended East line of said Tract No. 875; thence South along said last line to the intersection of the East line of said Tract No. 875 to the point of beginning.

TIME AND PLACE OF HEARING. Notice is hereby given: That on the 5th day of December, 1927, at 7:30 o'clock P. M., in the Council Chamber of the City of Santa Ana, any and all persons having any objections to the proposed work or improvement may appear before the said City Council and show cause why said proposed improvement should not be carried out in accordance with this Resolution.

PUBLICATION OF RESOLUTION OF INTENTION. Section 7. The Santa Ana Daily Evening Register, a daily newspaper published and circulated and of general circulation in the city of Santa Ana, is hereby designated as the newspaper in which this Resolution of Intention shall be published and the City Clerk of said City is hereby directed to cause this Resolution of Intention to be published by two insertions in said newspaper, in the manner and form required by law. The City Council does not deem it advisable that the Clerk mail copies of notice of improvement to the owners or reputed owners, and is not required to mail the same.

POSTING OF NOTICES OF IMPROVEMENT. Section 8. The Street Superintendent of said City shall, after the adoption of this Resolution of Intention, cause to be conspicuously posted along the lines of said contemplated work or improvement and along the open streets and alleys within the hereinbefore described assessment district, notices of the passage of this Resolution of Intention, in the manner and form required by law. I hereby certify that the foregoing Resolution of Intention was duly and regularly introduced and passed by the City Council of the City of Santa Ana, at an adjourned regular meeting thereof held on the 14th day of November, 1927, by the following vote, to-wit:

Ayes, Trustees J. L. McBride, W. G. Knox, Stanley E. Goode, F. L. Gault, J. E. Vegely, None, Trustees, None, Absent, Trustees, None, Aye: (Seal) J. E. VEGELY, Clerk of the City of Santa Ana.

THEY RULE WAVES FOR U. S.

With colorful ceremony, Adm. Henry A. Wiley (inset) the other day took supreme command of the U. S. fleet, comprising every American naval vessel afloat. The picture shows the U. S. Texas at anchor in Los Angeles harbor, where retiring Admiral Charles Hughes upset the proceedings by refusing to allow newspapermen and photographers on the ship during the ceremony. The scribes chartered a small boat and got the above picture, returning to the Texas to photograph Admiral Wiley after Admiral Hughes had been relieved of his command.

DRUGGED WOMAN'S STORY IS CHECKED

Ridge route, near Saugus, early today in such a deep stupor that it was thought at first she was dead. Her story to police is incoherent. She first said she lived in El Paso, Texas, but later declared she did not remember where her home was but that she had been living in Sacramento for some time. She described Foster and Martin as Indians who receive government income.

Old Palace Is Found In Africa

NAIROBI, Africa, Nov. 17.—The ruins of the luxurious palace of a Sultan, with harem and mosque adjacent, have been discovered in the remains of the City of Gedi, north of Mombasa.

Gedi lies in a dense forest and is a city of unknown age. Walls peer through avenues of trees and giant creepers hold together the crumbling fragments of roofless dwellings, whose inhabitants probably lived more than a thousand years ago.

The city, stretching along a creek from a point six miles inland to the seashore, was once surrounded by a wall. The removal of part of the forest growth has revealed the ruins of the palace, which is believed to be of Persian origin.

Skunk Rewards Man For Kindness

RATON, Pa., Nov. 17.—Emulating the two men from Batavia, N. Y., who last week showed their heroism by removing a can from the head of a skunk, Jacob Schwar, this city, went them one better yesterday by not only removing a salmon can from the head of a skunk but also spent an hour picking Burdock burrs from its fur, and throughout the tedious performance the animal acted as a well-behaved skunk should act.

Schwar captured the skunk in the yard of his home with the aid of a buck bag and is now keeping it in a box. He had not determined whether it shall become a household pet or a neck-piece. It is an excellent specimen, entirely black except a tiny white spot near the nose.

120 Ways Found To Cook Potato

BERLIN, (Nov. 17.—A potato is a potato, but there are 120 ways of cooking him: Plain, mashed, roast, fried and a la. All these potato creations were demonstrated by one chef at the Western German Hoteliers' fair at Cologne, and, while he claims this as a record, he does not think the possibilities of serving the succulent tuber are exhausted.

At the fair, which attracted some 10,000 hotelmen from all over Germany, nearly 500 firms manufacturing articles for hotel use exhibited their wares.

Lad, 15, Becomes Orchestra Leader

HARTFORD, Conn., Nov. 17.—Henry Ciszek, a lad of 15, will be concert master of the Hartford Philharmonic orchestra during the season, which opens this month.

Ciszek was chosen from among eight candidates who appeared before the conductor of the orchestra.

The proficiency of young Ciszek has been recognized by many instructors and violinists since he began studying music at the age of 9. His home is in Bloomfield.

FIX VALUATION. WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—The interstate commerce commission today fixed a final valuation on the Santa Maria Valley railroad, of California, of $220,000 as of 1915.

GREAT BRITAIN FEARS LOSS OF HER PRESTIGE FROM EUROPE

CHICAGO, Nov. 17.—For the first time since the work of "Chasing King George out of America" began, the "America first" forces today pointed to a motive for England's alleged attempts to "propagandize the United States."

Mayor William Hale Thompson's aides were given their motive at Wednesday's session of the trial of School Superintendent William McAndrew, who is charged with pro-British inclinations.

The motive came in the testimony of Charles Edward Russell, a liberal writer, and lecturer. During his testimony Russell said: "Great Britain fears for her prestige." Immediately there was a general pricking of ears from the Thompson forces.

That is why the poor little Prince of Wales has been kept running around the globe. Australia and Canada have created apprehension and only a miracle can save India," he continued.

And so today there was a general discussion of "Great Britain's fear for her prestige."

Thompson's aides pointed out that Amalgamation with the United States would considerably strengthen the English prestige.

Russell explained the reason why "Great Britain has turned to the United States as a dominating force" that would strengthen prestige.

"When the American troops went through the German army in 1918," he said, "the English decided that this nation was to be feared and the best way to deal with it was to convince the United States of the value of British friendship."

Incidentally, Russell revealed some information which would be interesting to American travelers in England.

"American travelers may obtain hotel accommodations without difficulty," he said, "by joining the English speaking union or the Pilgrim society."

"These organizations are the backbone of the British propaganda machine. Members will be taken care of at any hotel no matter how full it is."

Meanwhile the America first forces continued their work at the first foundation, an organization founded by Mayor Thompson to promote American ideals.

While the corporation is a non-profit organization, membership dues are $10.

The foundation does its work by mail and personal lectures and is reported to be indulging in large quantities of literature, already.

NARCOTIC PEDDLER FACES LONG TERM

FRESNO, Nov. 17.—Found guilty on an indictment charging violation of the Harrison narcotic act by a jury in the U. S. district court here, Juan Rojas, Hanford pool hall proprietor, today faced a 21-month sentence in Leavenworth penitentiary. Rojas was arrested by H. G. Scholtens, narcotic inspector, who posed as an addict to purchase dope from him.

NO WORD RECEIVED FROM BRITISH PLANE

LONDON, Nov. 17.—Although no news had been received from Capt. R. H. McIntosh and Bert Hinkler, who took off from Pavo aldrone Tuesday in a Fokker plane on a non-stop flight to India, aviators have estimated that the plane carried sufficient fuel to keep them aloft until noon (Greenwich time) today.

The plane had been fueled with 800 gallons of gasoline, sufficient for 48 hours flying.

Dangerous Varicose Veins Reduced or Money Back

This Simple Home Treatment Is Giving Amazing Results

Rub Gently and Upward Toward the Heart as Blood in Veins Flows That Way

If you or any relative or friend is worried because of varicose veins, or bunches, the best advice that anyone in this world can give you is to ask your druggist for an original two-ounce bottle of it.

Moone's Emerald Oil (full strength) and apply as directed night and morning to the swollen, enlarged veins. Soon you will notice that they are growing smaller and the treatment should be continued until the veins are of normal size. So penetrating and powerful is Emerald Oil that even piles are quickly relieved. All druggists sell lots of it.

Ronalds purchased a horse from Breed in the spring and was not informed it was unsafe for children to get too close to the animal, according to Ronald's claim made in the action filed through Stone & Marvin, attorneys.

On the morning of July 3, Ronald sent his two young sons into the pasture after the horse, James, was standing near the animal when it kicked. Both of his jaws were fractured and several teeth were knocked out. The boy was unconscious for some time. He was taken to a hospital and remained there several weeks.

H. M. BLACKMER WON'T RETURN FROM EUROPE

final documentary evidence will be presented and U. S. Attorney Peyton Gordon will advise the investigating body on "the law of the case."

Day was not in court, but his lawyer, Daniel Wright, asked Chief Justice Walter L. McCoy, in District of Columbia, supreme court, to reduce the bond on the ground it was excessive.

Assistant U. S. Attorney Neil Burkshaw pointed out, however, that Day, vice president of the Sinclair Exploration company, had no permanent address in America and was accustomed to spending much time abroad. He indicated plainly the government fears that Day may file if his bond was reduced.

Refuses Immediate Action. Justice McCoy refused to act immediately, but permitted Wright to file a motion for reduction of bond which will be argued probably Monday.

Day was charged with jury tampering conspiracy two weeks ago, after he refused to testify before a grand jury investigating such charges. He pleaded not guilty.

The government's opposition to reduced bond for Day followed United Press reports from Paris that Blackmer did not intend to return as a Teapot Dome trial witness, despite the contemplated early seizure of his property in Denver.

ILLNESS FATAL TO MOROCCO SULTAN

But under a French protectorate, it is expected that the appointment of Mouley's successor will be political.

Mouley Youssef was a typical Moor of ancient lineage. Devoted to the Moslem faith, he nevertheless showed boyish glee whenever he was presented with such a modern contrivance as a photograph, alarm clock or radio set.

Sons Have Same Taste. His sons have the same taste, specializing particularly in bicycles.

Youssef's harem consisted of those four wives officially permitted Mohammedans and countless concubines, ranging from black Africans to pallid Berbers, circassians and Georgians—but no blondes, although for them he showed a truly royal preference. On a visit to Paris in 1926 he raved over the beauty of blonde girls there.

Under the Mohammedan system, Mouley's death will be proclaimed from the minarets, or towers, or mosques throughout the country, and the faithful will unite in wailing lamentations.

LOCAL BOY GIVEN HERO MEDAL IN S. F.

Word has just been received in Santa Ana by Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Jemison of 711 West Fifth street that their son, Lloyd Jemison of San Francisco, was awarded a medal for heroism at this month's meeting of the Loyal Order of Moose of which he is a member.

According to the report received by Mr. and Mrs. Jemison the medal, a gold one bearing the word "heroism" on the face of the design, was given by Supervisor James B. McSheehy of San Francisco. More than 2000 members of the San Francisco lodge were present during the presentation of the award.

The medal was awarded after Jemison dived into a swimming pool, fully dressed, and rescued a man who was drowning.

Jemison lived in Santa Ana for eight years, going to San Francisco four years ago. He attended school here and is well known.

FOR NEURALGIA

BAYER

ASPIRIN

You doubtless depend on Aspirin to make short work of headaches, but remember that it's just as dependable an antidote for many other pains! Neuralgia? Many have found real relief in a Bayer Aspirin tablet. Or for toothache; an effective way to relieve it, and the one thing doctors are willing you should give a child—of any age. Whether to break up a cold, or relieve the serious pain from neuritis or deep-seated rheumatism, there's nothing quite like Bayer Aspirin. Just make certain it's genuine; it must have Bayer on the box and on every tablet. All druggists, with proven directions.

Pleasant Surprise Planned by Neighbors

Mrs. John Penn of 518 North on Ness avenue, was tendered a happy surprise recently when her friendly neighbors planned a party for her birthday.

The conspirators arrived in a group bearing many gifts for their surprised hostess, and also a birthday cake whose candles were for "sweet sixteen"—and a few more for good luck. The cake was served with hot chocolate before the evening drew to a close. The children of the group provided an entertainment program.

Those present in addition to Mrs. Penn, were Mrs. Katie S. Hendricks and daughter, Mrs. Thurner, Mrs. Della Miller and daughter Frances, Mrs. H. M. Penn, Mrs. A. M. Hancy, Mrs. Hannah Tuttle, Mrs. Gerle Tuttle, Mrs. Newell Crouse and daughter Gloria, Mrs. W. A. Culbertson, Mrs. Clarence Brown and daughters, Cleo Belle and Jeanette.

Business Women's Club

Business and Professional Women of the county will meet next Monday night at St. Ann's Inn for a 6:30 o'clock reciprocity dinner, and today, Mrs. Laura Murray, president of the Santa Ana Club, asked local members to telephone their reservations to her at the city water office, 'phone 8.

Miss Elizabeth Phillips, chairman of the November program committee, has arranged for a talk by De Witt V. Hutchings, son-in-law of Frank Miller, of Glenwood Mission Inn fame. Mr. Hutchings will talk on the art treasures of the Mission Inn, telling of various important pieces, noted for their historical value, and will explain how Mr. Miller began the collection that is now famous all over the world. It is probable that the latter, who also will be guest of the evening, will supplement the talk, with some of his adventures in curio seeking.

Dinner reservations must be made with Mrs. Murray not later than Saturday noon.

ORANGE COUNTY SISTERS WHO GIVE RECITAL FRIDAY NIGHT

Katherine and Ellen Collins, "California Songbirds," who tomorrow night will be heard in recital at the Ebell auditorium under the direction of Holly Lash Visel.

"The California Songbirds" is the name won by two talented little Orange county sisters, Katherine and Ellen Collins, radio artists of KJH, who will be presented in a recital tomorrow night at Ebell clubhouse, by Holly Lash Visel.

Katherine and Ellen will give the program of songs, and will be assisted by Onolee Jones, "cellist," and their accompanists, Miss Mary Bruner and Miss Marie Lilley. The program will open with duo numbers, "O Music" by Wooley, "Shadows Over the Sea" by West, and "When Twilight Weaves," an arrangement from Beethoven.

The little girls will also present a group of French interpretations, of fairy sketches, (solo and duo work) and close with "The Minuet" by Mosenthal, "Come to the Fair" by Martin, and "The Market" by Carew. Miss Jones will play Popper's "Hungarian Rhapsody"; "Liebestraum" by Liszt, and "Gavotte" by Popper, for her "cello numbers.

The program will begin at 8 o'clock, and will be open to the public.

Scots Will Present Charity Ball

Plans for the annual charity ball held by Santa Ana pyramid, Ancient Egyptian Order of Scots, which will take place this year on the evening of Thanksgiving day, have been completed, according to A. H. Gritton, toparch, who is chairman of the committee in charge of the arrangements.

Proceeds from the dance are to be added to the Christmas fund of the Scots and will be used in purchasing food, clothes and other necessities for needy families during the Yuletide.

Cards will also be featured at the affair.

The committee in charge includes, Mr. Gritton, L. E. Wallace, L. A. Wallace, N. E. Mayhill and L. E. Roach.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

CHURCH SOCIETIES

Successful Program
When Mrs. Earl Gable and Mrs. R. C. Terpstra of the First Christian church took their turn at hostesses at a silver tea, they made it an evening affair instead of afternoon, entertaining some 40 guests Tuesday night in the community house.

A delightful program had been arranged by Miss Lizzetta Phillips, and opened with whistling solos by Miss Audrey Fey whose numbers were "God Touched the Rose" by Brown (with violin obbligato by Miss Rowena Newcomb) and "The Star" by Rogers. Other numbers were piano solos, "Liebestraum" by Liszt, and "Gavotte" by Bach-Saint-Saens; reading, Mrs. F. T. Porter; songs, "The Little Dustman" by Brahms, and "I Bring You Heartsease" by Branscombe, Miss Thelma Stovall, soloist at the First Christian church; readings by Mrs. Leona Leasing; piano duets, "Triumphal March" from Verdi's "Aida," and "Spanish Dance" by Moskowsky, Miss Ruth Andrews and Miss Lizzetta Phillips. Miss Phillips was accompanist for Miss Fey's whistling numbers and for Miss Stovall's songs.

The community house was made a very attractive setting for the event, by the use of many autumn flowers in gold and bronze shades. The program was followed by a series of entertaining games, and a variety of sandwiches were served with hot chocolate at the close of the evening.

Presbyterian Aid
The Ladies' Aid society of the First Presbyterian church held an all-day meeting on Wednesday. Sewing occupied the morning hours, and the northeast section served a splendid lunch at noon.

Mrs. Clyde Bach, president, opened the business meeting at 2 o'clock. Mrs. A. M. McDermott led the devotionals using as her theme "The Miracle of the Feeding of the Five Thousand." The program of the afternoon was given by Miss Thompson of KJH, radio fame, on her steel guitar, "Farewell to Thee" and "My Blue Heaven" were greatly enjoyed, as were also Mrs. Porter's readings, "The Old Family Album" and "Getting Johnny Off to School."

After hearing Mrs. Mitchell's report of the Federated Aid, the meeting adjourned.

Delta Alpha Class
The Misses Beulah Stone and Margaret Bowen entertained the Delta Alpha class of the First M. E. Sunday school at an enjoyable party held recently at the home of Miss Stone, 712 Mortimer street.

Miss Bertha Briney conducted the business session at which plans were made for social service work to be accomplished in the next few weeks. Guessing games suggesting Thanksgiving were then introduced, and those making especially good records were Miss Hall, Miss Pauline Whitney, Mrs. Westlake and Mrs. Stone. The merry interval was followed by refreshments.

Enjoying the hospitality of Miss Stone and Miss Bowen were the Misses Olive Briney, Ida Reed, Clara Barnes, Minnie Wilde, Pearl Kimball, Bertha Briney, Gertrude Richardson, Esther Hendrickson, Maude Thomas, Alta Thomas, Mamie Lamb, Grace Grigsby, Elizabeth Sherman, Laura Sherman, Myra Westlake, Mrs. Leland, Mrs. Steward, Mrs. Westlake and Mrs. Stone.

Royal Neighbors

The two membership contest teams of the Royal Neighbor lodge, Rex and Cyclone, ended their long fight for new members Monday night when they met at M. W. A. hall. The Rex team members, having won the contest, were guests of honor at the meeting.

An interesting program was presented by the Cyclone team. It included a clever little playlet, "The Secret of the Family Album," presented by Mrs. Glenn Breeding, Mrs. Flora Dolbee, Mrs. Mabel Crawford and Mrs. Gilbert. Several musical selections and readings were given, also.

Four new members were initiated into the order during the lodge session which preceded the social hour.

"Of all the queer things in the world," said Scouty, as the ladder curled and rose real slowly in the air, "this is the queerest yet. That long rope ladder seems alive. How lucky we were to arrive. If we just keep our eyes on it, 'twill do some stunts, I'll bet."

The Tines sat upon the ground and watch the ladder move around. It floated lightly on the breeze but stayed right near at hand. "That's sure as queer as it can be," said Coppy, "and it puzzles me what makes it stay up in the air. I cannot understand."

"You're not so dumb as that, I hope," snapped Clowny. "That's a magic rope. Of course it does a lot of things that mystify us all. But I know why it stays up there. It must be lighter than the air. And anything that's lighter, floats. That's why it doesn't fall. And then a soft voice, in the air, exclaimed, "Your explanation's rare, but, even so, it's very wrong."

HouseholdDouble Wedding Event
In Early December
Told at Party

When Mrs. Hugh Haley and Mrs. Dale Brockett joined to present one of the week's loveliest parties, at the Haley home, 2331 Benton Way, it was to announce the betrothal and approaching double wedding of a sister of each one, Miss Margaret Haley, who will wed Herbert Meisinger, and Miss Marjorie Peebles, who will wed Herbert Kauffman.

Arriving guests found the Haley home a very picture of Christmas, with its red-berried holly and many scarlet flowers. Tables were arranged for bridge, and when scores were later tallied from the pretty Christmas score cards, Miss Helen Sawdew was high, Mrs. William Kelly, second, and Mrs. Frank Briggs, third. Each received a lovely gift in Christmas wrappings.

At the late supper hour, tables were arranged with snowy linens, Christmas holly and tall red tapers. Favors at each place were clever red "snap mottoes," and when these were pulled, the wedding announcements appeared, each revealing that the young people would be wedded at a double ceremony on Sunday, December 4, in the home of Miss Haley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Haley, 2420 North Park boulevard.

Sharing interest with the two brides-elect and their happy plans, was Mrs. Homer DeWeese, formerly Miss Dorothy Peebles, a sister of Miss Marjorie Peebles and Mrs. Dale Brockett. Her wedding to Mr. De Weese of Long Beach, was an event of October 30, and the young people are making their home in Long Beach.

Enjoying the hospitality of Mrs. Haley and Mrs. Brockett, were their honorees, Miss Haley and Miss Peebles, Mrs. O. A. Haley, Mrs. Paul Carnahan, Mrs. Homer De Weese, Mrs. Robbins, Mrs. Helen McCallum, Mrs. Aljoe Marsh, Mrs. Harry Le Bard, Mrs. William Kelly, Mrs. Joseph Blanchard, Mrs. J. A. EIGHTY-FIRST BIRTHDAY HAS ITS ENJOYABLE CELEBRATION

Mrs. Frances Stone of 1115 Spurgeon street, who yesterday reached her eighty-first birthday, learned that a number of her friends were deeply interested in the event, when she found herself complimented in various charming ways.

The first intimation of unexpected events, came when her daughter, Mrs. Ruby Hickox of Laguna Beach, arrived, accompanied by Miss Pauline Jahraus, and "kidnapped" the lovely little old lady, for a gay luncheon at the Rose Arbor tea room. In the afternoon, the trio had a very merry of shopping, Mrs. Stone visiting the downtown shops for the first time in many months.

With the coming of evening, Mrs. Stone was again surprised, when a group of neighbors arrived, bearing gifts of choice fruits and a large birthday cake, inviting indeed with its flickering pink candles. Invading her kitchen, the self-invited guests speedily had tea brewing, and a happy evening followed.

In the group were Mrs. P. L. Robinson, Mrs. R. B. Budrow, Mrs. Dama Smith, Miss Prudence Drews and Miss Marjorie Lusk.
Mrs. Stone has turned her attention to writing in recent years, and has had many of her charming bits of verse printed in the Register. She was a frequent contributor to the Patchwork Quilt when it appeared in the columns of this paper. An idea of her love for flowers may be gleaned from the accompanying picture, in which she is shown in the garden at the rear of her home.

Guests in Los Angeles

Mr. and Mrs. B. P. Newman of this city, and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Matlock and little daughter Maxine, of Balboa, were dinner guests last Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde C. Huffman and Mrs. Huffman's mother, Mrs. Bertha P. May, at their home, "Casa del Cielo," 4610 Mont Eagle Place, Los Angeles. Mrs. Huffman was Miss Margaret May of this city.

In the afternoon the party was augmented by the arrival of Mr. Billingsly and Mr. Hackley, Los Angeles friends of the hosts.

School Children Plan Entertainment for Chair Fund

Everyone residing in the Roosevelt school district is anticipating the program being planned by parents and teachers for tomorrow night in the school kindergarten.

The affair is being presented as a means of raising funds for the purchase of chairs for the auditorium, and the school children will all be given place on the entertainment, which will begin at 7:15 o'clock. The school orchestra will give the first number, and after the usual salute to the flag, by high sixth and high fifth grade pupils, Nellie Cribara will give an old-fashioned dance. Other prettily dances will be presented by Gloria Clem, Lois Schram and June Aiken, while readings will be given by Marian Brannon, Marion Pletke, Margaret Ewen, Buddy Fagenkopp, and Betty Jo Willis, the latter programmed for a pianologue.

Piano solos will be played by Dick Horton, Dorothy Drew, Virginia King, Mary Majors and Dorothy Proctor, while Ralph Pagenkopp, Robert Forney and Sylvia White will play violin solos. To add variety will be a whistling solo by Eloise Bradley, a Chinese number by Claragene, Jimmie and Wiltie Worley, and a succession of songs, drills, calisthenics, and glee club numbers by various groups.

Miss Verna Wells is principal of Roosevelt school, and she and her staff of ten teachers are co-operating with the P. T. A. in presenting the entertainment. Mrs. Richard Cribara is president of the Parent-Teacher association, and Mrs. S. H. Bradley, secretary.

District Inspector of Patriotic Order Is Complimented

Twenty members of the Daughters of Union Veterans chapter in Santa Ana gathered at the Home cafe Tuesday afternoon for a luncheon honoring Mrs. Edna Wadsworth, of Los Angeles, district inspector of the order.

Following the luncheon a business meeting was held at G. A. R. hall. Officers put on the work for Mrs. Wadsworth's inspection, initiating Mrs. C. C. Cozad at the time. It was reported that $13 had been expended on relief work, $20 spent for patriotic work, 48 calls made, and 11 bouquets sent to members who were ill.

A committee was appointed to make arrangements for the monthly tea to be held Friday afternoon, 2 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. C. H. Lurker, 1105 Hickory street.

Members who enjoyed the luncheon which preceded the business session were Miss Minnie Cowan, Miss Edith Ward, Miss Addie Cowan, Miss Bertha Belt, Mrs. Harriet Mitchell, Miss Emma Belt, Mrs. Maude Button, Mrs. Sarah Brown, Mrs. Emma Chapman, Mrs. Eva Bell, Mrs. Eva Gage, Mrs. Mae Thomas, Mrs. Nellie Parker, Mrs. Margaret Van Meter, Mrs. Eva Piper, Mrs. Arletta Phillips, and Mrs. Luella Hill. Guests included Mrs. Wadsworth, Mrs. Mary Walker, of Long Beach; Mrs. Udyke, of Fullerton; and El J. Parker, past department commander.

Quill Pen Club

When Quill Pen members met Tuesday night with Mrs. Emmett Elliott in the Little Gray House on Riverside avenue, each one was prepared to answer roll call with a "short, short story" whose theme was "Glory." The result gave rise to a spirited discussion in which each response was subjected to thorough criticism—all constructive.

Mrs. R. A. Cushman and Mrs. Blanche Brown had submitted an outline suitable for giving such criticism to the programmed stories of the evening, which in this case, were offered by Miss Lucy Agar and Mrs. N. E. Wells. The results were excellent, and both Miss Agar and Mrs. Wells felt that the aid given, was invaluable.

Miss Agar offered a college story in "I. Q. 80," which departed from the all too usual college theme of light flirtations and the latest in slang and was judged extremely original in both theme and treatment. Mrs. Wells read a romance whose charm was heightened by her mode of telling the tale in the first person.

Fifteen members, including the president, Mrs. Harry M. Smith, and one guest, Mrs. George Strachan, were present to enjoy the program. One new member, Mrs. Mason Yould, was accepted. While the stories were being discussed, Mrs. Elliott, assisted by Mrs. J. U. Viau, served cake and coffee.

AT THE THEATER

YOST BROADWAY THEATER

A screamingly funny farce is said to be the only way to describe "The Gay Retreat," which will show tonight and tomorrow at the Yost Broadway theater.

This is a story of the war but from the humorous angle and with the most unusual situations ever pictured.

It deals with Dick Wright, played by Gene Cameron, who enlists in the ambulance corps after being turned down by other branches of the service. His chauffeur and valet, also join to keep an eye on him and to prevent him from wandering into No Man's Land in his sleep. These two body guards are played by Sammy Cohen and Ted McNamara, who scored so sensationally as the merry making marines in "What Price Glory."

But their performance in "The Gay Retreat," surpasses even their previous acting in the great war epic. But they have ample help in creating laughs. There is the Red Cross nurse, Betty Francisco, whom Dick leaves behind in his father's care, and the beautiful French girl played by Judy King, whom he meets overseas. Also Holmes Herbert as his father and Charles Gorman as the hard, tough sergeant. The performance of this well chosen cast in a story that is filled with thrills and with a double barreled romance and directed by Ben Stoll results in a production that for sheer entertainment is a thing not soon forgotten.

WEST COAST-WALKER

"The Girl From Rio," a production starring Carmel Myers is now on view at the West Coast-Walker theater and it is a picture that combines all the elements that make for real entertainment, drama, romance, a colorful atmosphere and a cast of screen favorites.

The story is one unusually strong in dramatic value, combining a number of tensely dramatic situations, which are worked out logically to a powerful if somewhat amazing climax. The sets, the direction of Tom Terriss, extremely skillful. The treatment of the carnival scenes, photographed entirely in technicolor, are most effective, bringing out the colorful and luxurious background of Rio's leading cafe.

Paul Sinclair, the English representative of a large coffee concern, engaged to a girl in England, meets Lola "The Girl From Rio" in the Cafe del Rio and falls madly in love with her. Senor Santos, a wealthy and powerful Brazilian very much in love with her is infuriated at the progress the Englishman makes in Lola's affections and tries to ruin Sinclair in a business way. Failing in this he decides to do away with him altogether. Lola warns him of the plot and things are worked up to a thrilling climax. The surprise ending would do justice to an O. Henry.

Carmel Myers in the title role plays her part with spirit and rare charm and brings a deep sense of dramatic value to the part of the Spanish dancer. Walter Pidgeon plays opposite Miss Myers.

MURPHY'S COMEDIANS

Santa Ana theater patrons will learn with considerable interest the fact that the management of Murphy's Orana theater has obtained once again the services of the well-known leading lady, Miss Fay Life.

Miss Life will open her engagement with the Murphy company next week in the title role of "Cinderella O'Riley." The play opens Sunday night.

Deserving of special mention this week in "Mickey" the stage offering at Murphy's Orana theater, is the clever acting of Billy Evans in the principal character part of the play. Evans is a finished product of the art and every part he plays is a distinct characterization.

TEMPLE THEATRE

Lois Wilson, feminine lead in the mystery drama, "Alias the Lone Wolf," the feature all this week at the Temple theater, claims Pittsburgh as her birthplace.

When still a small child, Miss Wilson's parents moved to Birmingham, Ala. She studied to be a school teacher, but the stage attracted her, and she went to Chicago. Through Lois Weber she was given a small part in "The Dumb Girl of Portici," which she played with such success that Miss Weber took her to Los Angeles. She then played leads with

THE MAKING OF A NEWSPAPER

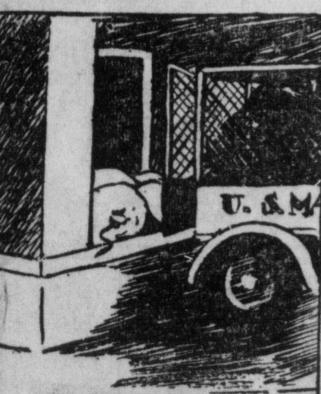

SKETCHES BY BESSEY

SYNOPSIS BY BRAUCHER

Mail and telegraph lines speed the world's news to the waiting presses. Nearly every newspaper has a world's wire service at its disposal, and it takes only a few minutes for a story to speed around the globe. The wire services have correspondents with leased wires at their disposal in the world's important cities.

By NEA, Through Special Permission of the Publishers of The Book of Knowledge, Copyright, 1923-26.

These news pictures are usually mailed from a central point and hundreds of papers throughout the country receive matrices of the subject on the same day.

The recent Hawaiian flight furnishes an example. Pictures were sent by radiophoto across the Pacific. Then telephoto speeded them across the country to a central point where matrices were made. Airplane mail services expedited these shipments so that a newspaper could print pictures of the flyers the day after they landed.

Let Yourself
Be Lured!

by the seductive charm of the MODERN negligee, robes and gift undersilks

—daring gifts!

If the Betty Rose Shop has surprised or even shocked you a bit in past years with its displays of UNUSUAL negligees and undersilks for GIFTS, let us warn you that they have all been pink teas compared with this year's array. Fancy Negligees are our choice morsel of gossip—you've never seen such luxurious creations with marabou and ostrich trimming; no more expensive than before, either. And Pyjamas—it's hard to remain calm in their presence. Padded Robes in a multitude of pastel shades will positively slay you. Black Georgette for undersilk gifts are again the thing. Your conscience will never be easy until you've visited the Betty Rose Shop for gifts!

Here's a smart gift idea: Step-in sets—and sets that include brassieres and French panties! Such gifts will melt any woman. (NOTE: We sincerely advise early choice and reservation of these sets; we have only unusual ones and they will surely go fast.)

SALE OF SEALS FOR RED CROSS TO START SOON

Although the annual Christmas seal sale in Orange county is only a week away, the local Tuberculosis association is not letting up on its campaign against the white plague. As the work of preparing for the sale of seals to 20,000 homes is going forward, a program of education in the rural schools is nearing completion.

The sale of the little penny stickers, which are responsible for the network of health protection throughout the United States, enables the Orange county association to continue its work the year round. Miss Beatrice Woodward, director of health education for the state association, is assisting Mrs. Amelia Meagher, executive secretary of the county organization, in the educational work here at present.

Miss Woodward probably has delivered more talks on health during the past three weeks than any other person in this section of the country. Her schedule began November 1 and will be completed on Friday.

Children in the country districts will have learned how to take care of their bodies in order to increase their resistance to tuberculosis when the program is completed. Speaking at three or four institutions daily, Miss Woodward has a program of 64 talks in Orange county to complete. Besides informing the youngsters how to care for the body, Miss Woodward is stressing the formation of health habits which will result in putting the knowledge into practice.

The tuberculosis campaign is being carried on more and more among the kiddies because it has been learned that they are more susceptible to infection than adults. By preventing the development of tuberculosis instead of combatting it after it has attacked a child, the hospitals are yearly being relieved of large numbers of cases which otherwise might reach them.

MAY TRANSFER EYES

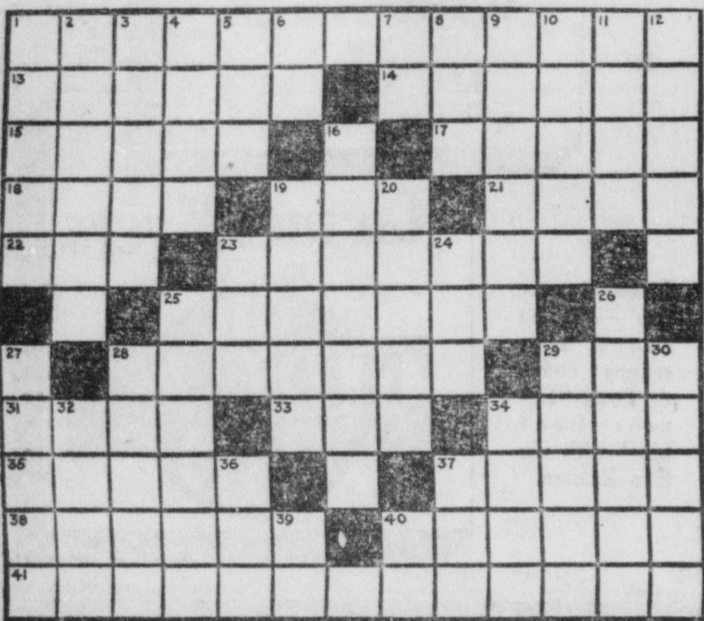

BUFFALO, N. Y., Nov. 15.—Medical science of the future may make possible the successful transfer of human eyes. Dr. Lucien Howe, of Buffalo, has spent 20 years in research on the problem and has succeeded in shifting eyes from the lower classes of animals to those of the same species which are blind. He believes this eventually may be done with humans.

JACK LOCKWELL

By Patten

The coming contest between the two freshman teams aroused no small interest in the school. "You were a sucker when you agreed to it, Jack," declared Willie Darling. "Hargon's got the best players. He'll lick you, and become captain." "Maybe not," returned Jack. ... Late Saturday forenoon Betty Darling burst into her brother's room in great excitement.

"Where's Jack?" she cried. "He's gone home," answered Willie. "He got a telegram from the family doctor to come instantly. His mother is critically ill."

"Oh, it was a mean trick to get him out of the game today and beat his team!" exclaimed Betty. "Jane Hargon told me. She's indignant. That telegram was a fake!"

One hundred and fifty miles away, Jack Lockwell had just met his mother, who appeared quite well. He learned from her that the doctor hadn't sent the telegram, and he saw through the detestable stratagem of his enemies at once. "In less than three hours the game begins at Rocklake," he said. A little later, astride his pony, Dynamite, he galloped madly away.

A ROYAL DERELICT

The aftermath of the great war is bringing to light one tragedy after another. It will never be known how many innocent and inoffensive lives have been broken by the tragic events of the great conflict.

One such has recently come to light in the person of Marta Federovna, dowager empress of Russia, who is living a blind and broken wreck in the land of her birth, Denmark. With high hopes she became the Czarina of all the Russias, as the wife of Alexander III, the Czar of all the Russias. A few years after, her husband was assassinated. Her son, Nicholas, came to the throne, and the Revolution of 1917 blotted out his life and the life of every member of his family. All day, it is said, she looks for the coming back of her son. She cannot believe that he is dead. Surely, uneasy lies the head that wears a crown. Never was it more so than in these days when thrones have toppled everywhere, and they who ruled have become exiles or victims of the revolutionary terror.

CONTROLLING THE LAW

We used to study in our books on political economy that the law of supply and demand fixed the price. In those days we recall also that it suggested that the supply meant the amount that was produced or available. It is no longer limited in just that way. Supply means the amount that is offered. In other words supply can be gaged in relation to the demand.

Now it seems that the sugar mills of the world are going to call a halt on the supply until the demand, the appetite, gets whetted up for a bigger price. Producers of grapes in our own California have affected the supply by cutting down the shipments in carload lots to the east. Milk producers have discovered that it is well to affect the supply. No longer is the law of supply and demand so inexorable as we used to consider it, for the demand itself also is affected through publicity and advertising. In other words the operation of the so-called law is just as clearly under the control of men as is the current of electricity under control of the operator at the switchboard. This truth is important because it underlies many false conclusions in economics.

UP FOR CONSIDERATION

Many matters of importance to the people of this state are to be presented to them for their approval or disapproval, at the November election, one year hence. The office of the Secretary of State has given out a list of the twenty-one proposals that are to be submitted. Some of these measures are initiative and some referendum. The initiative proposals are those that have started from the people by petitions. The referendum proposals concern measures that were passed by the last legislature; these measures were held up by petition of the people and must be referred to the people for their vote.

Among all these measures residents of Orange county will likely find themselves most interested in the referendum secured by the political powers of Los Angeles to prevent the reapportionment measure from going into effect. The bill as passed by the legislature and signed by Governor Young makes an apportionment of state senators and assemblymen, and by it Orange county is designated as a separate senatorial district. At present the district comprises three counties—Orange, Riverside and Imperial. Led by the Orange County Farm Bureau, a strong fight will be made in this county for maintaining the bill as passed by the legislature. There is no reason why anyone in this county should vote with the Los Angeles politicians on this measure.

If the bond issue proposal by which $10,000,000 would be raised for elimination of grade crossings is carried in November, it is quite sure that a goodly sum will be spent in eliminations in which residents of this county are much interested. Possibly through this bond issue the grade crossings at Irvine and Northam stations would be done away with. We have been waiting for a long time for some action in relation to those crossings, as well as one on the Yorba road.

Orange county attorneys interested in irrigation law, for their clients, doubtless will give close study and attention to the proposed constitution amendment having to do with a proposition to abolish the old riparian water rights doctrine. The amendment would restrict stream-bank land owners to a "reasonable" use of waters for beneficial purposes, doing away with their claim to an unrestricted flow. Water rights are a sacred thing in California, and any measure that has anything to do with water law is bound to bring irrigationists to their feet. There has long been a clash between portions of the state where water is scarce and portions where water is plentiful. Eternal vigilance has been and is the price of water. California is a big state with wide and diversified interests. A water law that seems advisable and beneficial in the San Joaquin valley might prove a menace in Southern California. The courts have adjudicated water rights in the Santa Ana river and Santiago creek. What effect the proposed measure might have on established rights in those streams and in underground waters is a subject that ought to be given, and, of course, will be given careful study by attorneys who will advise us as to the effect this measure might have upon us.

Without going further into the twenty-one proposals at this time, we find that in these three measures alone there is plenty to arouse the interest of the voters of this county in the portion of next November's ballot to be devoted to the consideration as initiative and referendum measures and constitutional amendments.

Stooping Man

Pomona Progress-Bulletin

If an observer will take his position upon a city street and watch the crowd pass on the walk, he will be apt to note that many people, probably the majority, have a stooping attitude, their heads bowed down in deep thought. Some young women seem to thrust their heads forward as if to follow a prevailing fad.

The physical culturists tell us that man was made to stand erect, and that if people do not have this good posture the organs will be cramped and fail to perform their function. Human life is probably considerably shortened by the failure to develop a good erect carriage and posture.

The stooping position seems a development of industrial life and civilization. Man in a state of nature would not be likely to bend over. The eyes of the savage would be upon the trees of the forests in which he hunted rather than on the ground. But when the mechanical arts develop, men work at benches, and they get the stooping habit. As industry becomes more highly refined, men work and study at desks. While their minds broaden, their bodies become round shouldered and contract. A very high price of physical well being is often paid for mental advancement.

Yet by attention to physical development, these unfortunate tendencies can be overcome. A physical culture teacher in a recent address spoke of a class of girls whom on beginning gymnastics, not one could pass a posture test. When the same girls became high school seniors, 25 out of 30 could pass the requirements.

The people who allow their daily cares and tasks to twist their bodies into a slothy shape suffer from one of civilization's most harmful tendencies. If they want to live useful and happy lives, they will get advice as to physical development and follow it.

Technique

San Diego Union

Chicago police have clamped the lid on 1500 gambling houses. They acted upon orders from their chief, who gathered his captains together the other day, informed them that Chicago was wide open, and notified them to shut down. There is something fantastic about the affair—the perfect coolness with which orders were issued, the perfect accuracy with which the police squads marched upon the temples of chance—1500 of 'em, count 'em—and the perfect certainty that the games will open again in due season. It is all so different from the general conception—the movie picture—of rampant crime.

Chicago is apparently equipped to reform or to backslide with all the cold precision of military maneuver.

Is Hard in Connecticut

San Francisco Chronicle

Accidents resulting from rain-covered windshields have been so frequent in Connecticut that a law has been passed requiring all automobiles to be equipped with windshield wipers. A driver, arrested for failing to have this equipment on his truck demonstrated to the court that his machine had no windshield and hence no place to put a windshield wiper. The prosecutor, however, insisted that the statute does not exempt any vehicles but motorcycles, and the judge fined the driver $5. Truly the way of the transgressor is hard in Connecticut.

INFLUENZA PREVENTION GREAT MEDICAL TASK

The prevention of influenza is apparently one of the most difficult matters that has confronted physicians since the 1918 epidemic indicated what a terrific mortality this disease could produce in times of exceptional virulence.

In a recent survey of the situation made by Prof. E. O. Jordan of the University of Chicago under a special grant of the American Medical Association, the methods used in the epidemic are viewed critically.

Closing of Schools

The closing of schools is somewhat out of favor with sanitarians as a means of stopping the spread of infection, since the school is ordinarily a safer place for the average child than the unsupervised playground or street.

Under exceptional circumstances the closing of schools is advisable; as, for example, at a time when the schools are demoralized by the epidemic with most of the teachers absent, medical inspectors overworked and many of the children sick. In a Chicago school studied in 1919, it was found that more cases of influenza developed among the pupils after the Thanksgiving holidays than occurred during the period when the schools were in session.

Similar observations were made by other investigators in other cities and most authorities now believe that if children taken ill are sent home at once there will be no need to close the schools.

Theoretically the prohibition of public gatherings in churches, theaters and moving picture shows would seem to be desirable. On the other hand, there are under the conditions of modern civilization so many opportunities for contacts of one type or another that most health authorities have concluded that little, if anything, is gained in large communities by stopping such assemblages.

In smaller towns and in country districts where large assemblages are not numerous, except under special circumstances, restrictive measures may be of service. In general, the authorities are convinced that the person who limits his points of contact with others to a minimum during an influenza epidemic will probably lessen his chance of becoming infected.

Gas Treatment

A few years ago, a great deal was said about the possible value of chlorine gas or of other germicidal gases in treating and preventing influenza. There does not seem to be as yet sufficient evidence to warrant general adoption of this method.

One of its chief virtues seems to be that it causes the membranes of the nose to pour out secretions copiously, which aids in washing off the bacteria. However, this effect can also be easily achieved by other less costly and less difficult methods.

If Only It Were True

NOT SINGLE-HANDED

I've never had to fight alone,
Always a friend has stood
In every doubt that I have known
To help me as he could.

A twenty-handed man am I,
With twenty eyes or more,
To watch when danger may be nigh
And guard my humble door.

Though rough the road and deep with care
And cold the rains which fall, Always my friends have rushed to share
The hardships of it all.

My burdens have been carried far
By willing hands and kind
And staunch and true those friendships are
Which follow from behind.

Now looking back across the years
In all that I have known,
The help of many a friend appears—
I've never fought alone.

The Aesthetic Barber

New York barbers, feeling the ambition for better things, have decided it is not in keeping with the dignity of their profession to let a haircut go off the shelf for 60 cents. By the simple method of charging 75 cents they propose to add "cultural background" to their calling.

The fellow who wants a shave won't get quite as much of the aesthetic background as the haircut customer. Shaves are only going up a nickel—from 20 to 25 cents.

If you're in New York and feel that you should improve yourself, don't go to a library. Just pick out any barber shop. There will be Dante, Henry James, Edna St. Vincent-Millay, Victor Hugo and Goethe on the table—not to mention the Police Gazette.

The talk you'll hear in a barber shop in New York will not be about the traveling man who had to stay at the farmer's house all night. No, no, no. The barber in Chair No. 1 and the tonorialist in Chair No. 2 probably will be giving Freud a pretty good going over. You'll never hear a barber bemoaning the two bucks he placed on the nose of some nag that didn't choose to run. The chances will be ten to one that your barber will pour something into your ear about the private life of Shelley or Keats.

A mutual uplift organization is planned whereby the barbers will be morally and mentally inspired. If the inspiration takes, maybe pretty soon you'll have to apply for a haircut by mail, furnishing references. It's all very intellectual.

Barbs By Tom Sims

An electrical company is making a mechanical man that does exactly as it is told to do and no more and no less. There are a couple of buildings in Washington where the company ought to use 531.

A Chicago teacher finds there are 468 words meaning "love" in the English language. Almost as numerous as grounds for divorce.

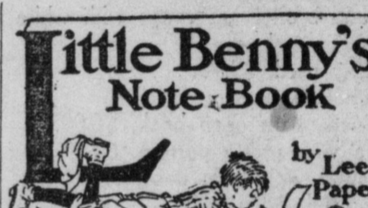

"Get out the vote" in Mexico seems to have been changed to "drag out the candidate."

Many a naturally good complexion goes to pot these days. At least it never can be said that the designers of women's clothing aren't giving every chance to the "survival of the fittest" idea.

Luxuries are almost prohibitive here, but in Russia you can get a divorce for twenty cents.

The scars of war have healed but it looks as though politicians never will forget the sources of revenue discovered.

Chicago has been fighting for home rule in the Illinois legislature. Maybe that's why Bill Thompson is so hot after King George.

I was laying on the living room floor looking up at the ceiling and thinking, and pop sed, Well young fellow, wats new, suppose you tell me everything you did today.

Every single thing? I sed, and pep sed, Well I am strangely interested in your slightest movements, but at the same time if you care to omit any superfluous details, that is always an artists privilege.

All rite, Ill begin with the parts that I think are the most interesting to you, I sed, and pop sed, Good, thats the essence of good reporting, and I sed, Well in the first place as soon as you went out this morning I noticed your watch was still on your bewro so I knew you had forgot to put it in your pocket, so I took it and ran and looked out your window to see if you was still in site, and I was lening out with your watch in my hand and wat do you think happened?

The didnt drop, dont tell me it dropped, pop sed, and I sed, No sir, but I darn near did, it came awful close, it practically did, if I hadent of gave a extra grab in time it would of.

Well thanks for the exter grab but dont scare me like that, my hart izent wat is used to be, pop sed, and I sed, Yes sir, the next thing I did Ill tell you about was to give some man your 2 hats off of the hat rack.

Wat, wat man, wats this, wat the dooce? pop sed, and I sed, Ife was the hat cleaning man that has the hat cleaning place up on the avenue.

O yes, I'd forgotten, I told him some time ago to stop and get them, yee gods I thawt Id lost my hats, Im bathed in a cold perspiration to all intents and perposes, have you got any thing else to tell me that you think Id be intristred in? and I sed, Yes sir, and he sed, Then dont.

Wich I didnt.

CURRENT COMMENT

By CHESTER H. ROWELL

ENROUTE, SAN FRANCISCO TO CHICAGO

ALL across the continent it is a municipal elections time, and the papers are full of what the candidates have to say of each other. There is a discouraging sameness. The "out" holds the "in" responsible for the vice, gambling and bootlegging which he says is going on, and the "in" responds by defying the "out" to prosecute the alleged offenders, and claiming that the town is the cleanest anywhere. But at least, nowhere does any one dare run on the "open town" platform, which some of us remember as common in older and rougher days. Even vice renders to virtue the tribute of hypocrisy, which is one step in advance.

BRIEF is fame. The police in an Eastern city arrested a down-and-out vagabond, who proudly announced "I am Pat Crowe." He was offended when the arresting officers seemed never to have heard the name. Yet who, whose memory goes back twenty-five years can forget the famous Cudahy kidnapping, of which Crowe was the culprit or the hero, according to your law-abiding or dime-novel point of view? Even the annual death of the various person who claim to have been "Nick Carter" needs an explanatory note. The only one not forgotten is "the man that struck Billy Patterson," and he never existed.

WHO was the most famous author and the most influential American citizen of the Nineteenth century? Mark Sullivan, in the second volume of his history of our times, makes a startling suggestion. He nominates William McGuffey, author of the McGuffey school readers which were almost the whole libraries and literatures of multitudes of Americans. To the school readers he attributes the popularity of the Hamlet "to be, or not to be" soliloquy, Poe's "Raven," the whole moralizing tone of the age, much of it based on the quite false proposition that honesty is the best policy, and the American cult of kindness to animals. The life of the early Twentieth century was in the hands of men trained on these readers, many of whom had read little else. It was a moralizing and rather stupid time—but even that has some advantages over a demoralizing and hectic time.

FOR that matter, compare the whole days of our youth with the bolder and more realistic present. Intellectually and morally, it was a settled time. All questions had a ready-made answer, which it was taboo to discuss, and nobody questioned. The theories of virtue were perfect, and never denied. The practice, too often, was worse than today. Politically, everybody accepted the theories of the Fathers of the Constitution as inspired. Big Bill would have had none to say him nay. Practically, government was never more sordid. Temperance was preached more than practiced. Nobody denied, and few accepted Christianity. Every lady was a lady, and would have been shocked to be anything else. But there were scandals then, too. We are probably no worse now. But nothing is settled, not even the question whether there is any difference between right and wrong. All the tabus are debated, with some on the negative side. Nobody knows the answer to anything. It is a time of mental and moral anarchy. Which is perhaps the best preparation for a more understanding future, which will have a better reason than tradition and tabu for its convictions.

WOULD you prohibit concealable arms entirely, to everybody? asks one anxious for the sanity of the writer, who has been accused of such heterodox views. And the answer is, "theoretically, yes; practically, no." The nation would be better off, and law-abiding citizens would be safer, if pistols were prohibited completely, even with the certainty that some would be bootlegged, and that criminals would have most of these. But, since this cannot now be done, no one is proposing it, except as an academic argument. What should be proposed practically is that the carrying of concealable weapons should be only by permit, and that this permit should be granted only as a special privilege, in exceptional cases, and not as a common right, to be given on application to any reputable person. A person wishing this special privilege should have on himself the burden of proof, first that he had some exceptional reason for needing the weapon, besides the common right of self-defense, and, second, that he had special skill in its use. This would not be good for the small arms business, but it would add to the safety of the people.

BUT what about the constitutional right to bear arms? says another. There is no such right to bear any particular sort of arms. A law prohibiting any sort of gun, even rifles, unless equipped with a safety trigger, is perfectly constitutional. So is a law providing that all arms must be of a certain size, and un concealable. These things are restricted and regulated by law now. The pistol part might be prohibited entirely, or restricted to those of exceptional need or skill, and no court would hold such a law unconstitutional. The legal part is easy. The whole question is the practical part. And the practical fact is that, if the arms companies would stop their lobbying, a considerable degree of restriction on pistols would soon be the law of most of the states, with the full approval of the people, but total prohibition would not now be attainable.

The Popper Gun

By SHIRLEY RODMAN WILLIAMS

HOMES were made to be lived in and enjoyed. One feels there is something lacking when he enters a home where children are and sees no evidence of play things and happy occupations. It isn't normal, and he feels that the children are somehow being cheated. There are so many necessary "May notes" that it does seem children might be allowed to play freely without being worried about musing up the house. Energy spent in teaching children to put things away when they're through playing is much more wisely expended than in fretting because the house is being temporarily strewn with toys.
